UNWIND AND SLIP ON YOUR BOOTS: THE WASHINGTON COUNTY FAIR IS HERE!

April 11–19, 2025 - Washington County Legacy Park - Hurricane, UT

Entertainment, Tradition, and Community Take Center Stage at the 2025 Washington County Fair.

Southern Utah's most anticipated springtime event is back—the Washington County Fair returns to Legacy Park from April 11 to 19, bringing a full week of celebration, entertainment, and community pride. With its perfect mix of thrilling attractions, hometown spirit, and family-friendly fun, this year's fair promises to be one for the books.

Concerts That Will Have You Slipping On Your Boots! Music lovers are in for a treat with two major headline concerts plus a variety of live performances throughout the week. First up, Lonestar—the award-winning country band behind hits like “Amazed,” “No News,” and “I’m Already There”—will take the stage on Monday, April 14. Then on Wednesday, April 16, Lee Greenwood delivers a powerful performance anchored by his timeless patriotic anthem, “God Bless the USA.”

The main stage will also host local artists and regional bands, ensuring there's never a dull moment. Whether you're into high-energy country, heartfelt ballads, or foot-tapping Americana, there's something for everyone at this year's fair.

Rodeo Nights & Derby Mayhem Highlights! The fair's roots run deep in Western culture, and two nights of rodeo on April 11 and 12 keep that tradition alive. Held in the large outdoor arena and presented by the Rocky Mountain Professional Rodeo Association, spectators will be treated to heart-pounding events including bull riding, barrel racing, and roping competitions. Gates open at 5:30 PM, and the action kicks off at 7 PM.

Then it's time to trade horses for horsepower at the ever-popular Demolition Derby, set for Saturday, April 19. Expect crumpled metal, roaring engines, and roaring crowds. Tickets are $30 in advance or $35 at the gate, not including the standard $3 fair admission.

A Parade For Celebration: Wave your flags and cheer on your neighbors at the Annual Fair Parade, stepping off at 9 AM on Saturday, April 12, in downtown St. George. This year's theme, “Celebrating Our Nation,” promises floats, music, and performances honoring American pride. Participant check-in begins at 7:30 AM on Tabernacle Street.

Carnival & Family Fun
No fair is complete without a classic carnival, and this year's is better than ever. Open select hours throughout the week (see full schedule below), it features everything from gentle kiddie rides to adrenaline-pumping thrill rides. Don't miss Family Nights on April 15–16, when all rides are just $2!

Other attractions include the Animal Education Center & Petting Zoo, delicious food trucks, artisan booths, the Beer

Garden, and various interactive exhibits that celebrate local agriculture, crafts, and culture.

The fair also features fun community contests for all ages starting with the Baby Contest – April 20 at 10:30 AM | Kids Cookie Contest – April 20 at 11 AM | Fresh Salsa Contest – April 20 at 2:30 PM

Also on display are literary showcases, youth talent exhibitions, pageants, and more—giving community members a chance to shine.

End Each Night with a Bang! Don't leave early—fireworks displays will light up the sky on April 12, 13, and 19 at 10 PM, delivering the perfect grand finale to your day at the fair.

General Admission is just $3 (ages 13+), $2 (ages 3–12) & parking is free.

From thrilling events to quiet moments of hometown pride, the 2025 Washington County Fair blends heritage, community, and entertainment in one unforgettable week. Mark your calendar and bring the whole family—you won't want to miss it!

SPEND THE WEEKEND AT THE ST. GEORGE ART FESTIVAL

April 18-19, 2025 - St. George, UT

With warmer weather here at last, it's the ideal time to get outside and connect with the community. And there's no better way to do so than by celebrating the arts at the 2025 St. George Art Festival. Slated for Easter Weekend, April 18-19, this year's Festival will feature a record number of artists displaying words in multiple mediums. Add in live music and entertainment – including two free evening concerts – food trucks and booths, a film festival, 5K race, dedicated children's area and more, and the annual event is the perfect way to welcome Spring.

This year, nearly 200 artists from across the U.S. were accepted into the show, which was juried by a panel of artistic professionals. Awards will be presented to artists in multiple categories on April 18. Visitors can look forward to seeing (and purchasing) paintings, ceramics, sculptures, textiles, glassworks, photography, fine jewelry and more, all carefully curated from hundreds of submissions.

“The excitement is building, and the City staff has been working tirelessly to make this year's Art Festival the best ever,” said Peyton Lee, Community Arts Manager for the City of St. George. “There's nothing more beautiful than Spring in St. George, so we hope everyone will want to be a part of this treasured tradition.”

On April 18, the festival will run from 11 AM to 7 PM. Then Tabernacle Street will get mellow with a performance by “Yachty By Nature,” whose take on '70s and '80s “yacht rock” favorites showcases hits from such artists as Michael McDonald, Hall and Oates, Boz Scaggs, Steely Dan, Toto, Christopher Cross, and many others. The Southern California ensemble features vocals by Scotty McYachty and Julie McCoy, guitar work by Captain Carl, Wes Coast and Big Wave Dave, plus Pacific Rim on sax and flute.

The festival continues on April 19 at 9 AM with the Art Attack 1-mile and 5K race, with original paintings by members of the Southern Utah Art Guild to be presented as awards. Artwork will be on display again at 10 AM, concluding at 6 PM. Then another free concert will be presented on Tabernacle Street featuring 'Overland Park,' Kansas-based indie rockers “The Greeting Committee,” veterans of Lollapalooza and the South by Southwest conference and festival. The band first came to national attention with its 2015 hit, “Hands Down.” Their most recent hit, “Everyone's Gone and I Know I'm the Cause,” was included on their 2024 album of the same name, which also featured the top-rated “Where'd All My Friends Go?”

Other Festival activities on tap include: Live entertainment on three stages scattered throughout Town Square. A creation station for the young, and the young at heart, offering 15 diverse crafts that bring artistic visions to life. Food trucks and vendors preparing an array of international food and refreshments, situated by the west and Greater Zion Main stages.

A TIMELESS TALE BROUGHT TO LIFE: HURRICANE THEATRICAL'S THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME

By Drew Burton

April 4-May 10, 2025 - Hurricane, UT

Step into the Heart of Paris and Experience a Story of Love, Sacrifice, and Redemption From the moment you step into the lobby of Hurricane Theatrical, Southern Utah fades away, and you find yourself in the heart of the Place de Grève. The immersive experience of The Hunchback of Notre Dame begins before the curtain rises, as the atmosphere, décor, and music envelop you in the grandeur of 15th-century Paris, right on the steps of Notre Dame Cathedral. Inside the theater, the breathtaking set fully transports you into Victor Hugo's world—a place where love, fate, and justice collide.

Running April 4 through May 10, 2025, the production promises an unforgettable theatrical experience, with performances every Monday, Friday, and Saturday at 7 PM, plus Saturday matinees at 2 PM. A special discounted preview night is set for Thursday, April 3 at 7 PM.

A Story of Passion and Prejudice

Based on Victor Hugo's novel and the beloved Disney film, The Hunchback of Notre Dame follows the outcast bell-ringer Quasimodo (Brad Serage) as he longs for a life beyond the cathedral walls. His world changes when he meets Esmeralda (Haley-Shea Benoit), a compassionate Romani woman who sees past his exterior. But their bond ignites the wrath of the powerful Archdeacon Frollo (Caleb Christensen), leading to a dramatic struggle of love, justice, and self-acceptance.

The dazzling costumes and masterful lighting design further enhance the storytelling, making each scene feel as if it's been lifted from a medieval tapestry.

A Must-See Production

The set is not only intricately designed to capture the majesty of Notre Dame Cathedral but is also built by the talented cast. Every towering arch, weathered stone, and stained-glass window reflects their dedication, immersing audiences in the mystery and grandeur of medieval France.

With a stellar cast bringing these iconic characters to life, audiences can expect powerhouse performances and deeply moving moments. Reflecting on the challenge of his role, Serage shared, "Portraying him physically—his stature and ticks—was something I envisioned from the start, but actually embodying it has been incredibly exhausting, and something I hope brings the audience closer to the story."

Don't miss one of the most powerful musicals ever written. Tickets are available at www.hurricanetheatrical.com or by calling 435-668-9753. Secure your seats now for an unforgettable night at the theater!

SO U COMEDY THEATER INVITES YOU TO LAUGHTER

1st & 3rd Saturday Each Month - St. George, UT

In the 1990's Whose Line Is It Anyway? introduced improvised comedy to the mainstream media and quickly became a household staple. If you want to experience those deep-belly laughs again, you're in luck! St. George has its own short-form improv troupe ready to entertain you! The So U Comedy Theater proudly presents improv with a cast of performers who have spent the last nine years honing their skills.

"Short-form" improv refers to short scenes that usually have a game within the scene, all made up on the spot based on suggestions from the audience. This ensures that no game, or performance, will ever be the same. Each show is unique and unscripted. The So U Comedy Theater recently celebrated its ninth anniversary in March. The audience was welcomed to a spectacular show and joined in the celebration with cake, balloons, and beloved cast members spanning the years, both past and present.

Games performed by the cast are long-time favorites: Late For Work - a side-splitting exhibition in pantomime, the punheavy Interrogation - where the details of the crime are unknown to the culprit, keeping the audience hanging on every word until a final confession pronounces the guesser "GUILTY!", and the uproariously entertaining (and sometimes taboo) Texts - in which players speech is bound to the actual text messages read from an audience members phone.

The focus of the So U Comedy Theater is to entertain, educate, and inspire through the art of improv performance. Through their diligence over the years, they have fostered an improv community and hope to grow even more. A recent addition to the cast, Alex Greenbaum, comes with experience in improv, including managing a community service organization that used improv to teach children essential life skills like teamwork and active listening. "It was much to my delight when I learned that St. George had an improv troupe. I attended my first community practice and found everyone to be nice and supportive. It wasn't long until I was able to audition and be accepted into the cast. Being a part of So U, attending practice, and performing in shows is the highlight of my week. I highly recommend checking out So U!"

This talented group performs the 1st and 3rd Saturday of the month upstairs at the Electric Theater Center. See the family-friendly show at 7 PM and stick around for the (Uncensored) 9 PM show, anything goes, so leave the little ones at home. Improv has something for everyone, from Dad Jokes to deep cuts, so grab your crew and see So U Comedy. Tickets can be purchased online at soucomedy.com or at the door. Discounts available.

KANAB ARTS BOARD EXHIBITION CELEBRATES LOCAL TALENT

April 17 to June 26, 2025 - Kanab, UT

The Kanab Arts Board invites all art lovers to the Second Quarter Exhibition Opening on April 17 at 5:30 PM, held at the Kane County Hospital lobby. This event showcases the vibrant creativity of four local artists and the inspiring works of students from the USU Extension Kane County 4-H program.

We're also thrilled to announce our 2024 award recipients: Linda McCowan as Artist of the Year and Ria Hoyt as Art Supporter of the Year. These honors will be presented during the opening reception in recognition of their impactful contributions to the local arts community.

The exhibition opens with colorful works from emerging 4-H artists, ages 9-12, from Kanab Elementary School. Through hands-on STEAM-based learning, these young artists explored art's intersection with science and technology—especially during a recent papier-mâché workshop. Under the guidance of Elizabeth Davis, Angie Reidhead, and Megan Brewer, students created imaginative, self-directed pieces now proudly on display. Featured student artists include Hunter Bauer, Ashlynn Beazer, Carter Berrie, Emmalyn Brewer, Graysen Davis, Tanzi Henderson, Vayla Henke, Ceci Huntington/Kallie Church, Bryson Palmer, Lander Porter, Elsie Stott, Beckham Walker, and Lexi Walker.

Joining them is Tally Willard, a contemporary realist painter whose work has been exhibited nationwide. A former graphic designer, Tally now paints full-time, capturing organic subjects with drama and emotion through rich texture and color.

Eileen Gilbert Bell, Kanab resident and former Kanab Arts Board president, brings her desert-inspired pieces to the show. Named 2022 Artist of the Year, Eileen continues creating despite vision challenges. She embraces new artistic perspectives while honoring the landscape and community she loves.

Natalie Wade, a Kanab-raised macrame artist, recently returned after years away.

Passionate about up-cycling, she transforms thrifted and antique finds into beautiful plant hangers and wall décor through intricate macrame techniques.

At the Kanab City Library, visitors will also find work by Jana Stone, a wood burning and mosaic artist. Originally trained in graphic design, Jana found her true passion in hands-on woodworking, often incorporating Southwestern themes and scrap wood mosaics into her unique creations.

The exhibition runs from April 17 to June 26 at both the Kane County Hospital and Kanab City Library. The Kanab Arts Board remains committed to promoting local art and creativity through its quarterly exhibitions. For details, email KanabArts@gmail.com, or follow @KanabArtsBoard on Facebook and Instagram.

ORDERVILLE 3RD ANNUAL SOUP TOWN DAYS

April 19, 2025, Orderville, UT

Orderville was established at the direction of LDS Church president Brigham Young in 1875 specifically to live the United Order, a voluntary form of communalism defined by Joseph Smith. The settlers grew their own crops and had some small farms surrounding the settlement. They also used local materials to make their own soap, brooms, buckets, furniture, etc. Orderville had blacksmiths, clerks, artists, musicians, and other professions. One of the most talked about items of the United Order history is the communal dining hall where every man woman and child ate their meals. A lot of the time with so many mouths to feed, soup was the easy meal to make. Hence the nickname of Soup Town. This experiment in communal living was the longest-lasting "Order" with a decade of success. In 1885, the enforcement of the Edmunds Anti-Polygamy Act of 1882 effectively ended the Order by jailing many of the Order's leaders. Nearly a century and a half after the final vestiges of the LDS Orderville United Order disappeared, the town remains a tight-knit conglomerate of pioneer stock, and what better way to celebrate a lasting heritage than to eat soup!

- 9 AM: Wiffleball Tournament Valley Elementary lawn
- 10 AM: Easter Egg Hunt Town of Orderville offices lawn

• 10:30 AM: Soup entries need to be at the NEC

• 12-7 PM: Soup, displays, Lawn Mower Races, and food at North Events Center & Carroll Arena

At Soup Town Days this year, there will be a United Order display, essays and dioramas from the Valley High School kids, a Wiffleball Tournament, Lawn Mower races, and, of course, Soup!

This year, the soup is FREE, 12-2 pm, and you will be tasting the many cook-off entries.

The Lawn Mower races will be held a little later this year at 5 pm and we will have the concession stand open serving Hamburgers and Hot Dogs.

The Daughters of Utah Pioneer Museum still preserves the unique history of Orderville and is open by appointment during the winter months and during summer months Fridays and Saturdays 12-5 PM. The DUP will be open 12-5 PM on Saturday the 19th. See you there!

SET SAIL FOR A LITERARY VOYAGE IN ST. GEORGE

At The Book Bungalow

Southern Utah may be miles from the nearest coastline, but this April, the ocean breeze will be blowing through St. George—at least in spirit. Book lovers, adventure seekers, and literary enthusiasts have two must-attend events lined up at The Book Bungalow that promise to transport them to different worlds, from the salty seas of New England to the gripping pages of dramatic fiction.

First up, on Saturday, April 19, at 7 PM, travel writer Daniel Seddiqui drops anchor in town to share his latest immersive adventure, Gettin' Nautical in New England. Seddiqui, known as “the Most Traveled Person in America,” has visited every state more than 20 times, collecting stories and experiences along the way. His newest book dives deep—literally—into New England’s seafaring culture, with hands-on encounters like fishing, ship repair, and even cooking up a mean lobster roll. From the bustling docks of Boston to the sandy shores of Nantucket, Seddiqui captures the essence of maritime life with the same curiosity and energy that have made him a favorite among travel readers.

Then, the following Saturday, April 26, at 7 PM, the spotlight shifts from the high seas to high drama as Christine Dixon and M.C. Topham (Mykalee Mendenhall) bring their captivating fiction to Local Authors Night. Dixon’s novel Tender Was the Lie plunges into the life of a country music star grappling with love, loss, and the relentless media spotlight. Meanwhile, Topham’s Ice in the Heart is a suspenseful journey of secrets, identity, and unexpected connections. Both authors draw from rich life experiences—Dixon as a former talent agent discovering stars like Mario Lopez and Topham as a dedicated storyteller since her teenage years—to craft narratives that pull readers in and refuse to let go.

These back-to-back literary events will take place at The Book Bungalow, 94 West Tabernacle Street, St. George, UT, offering a chance to meet the authors, hear their inspirations, and pick up a signed copy of their books. Both events are free to attend, and more details can be found at www.the-bookbungalow.com. Whether you’re drawn to the call of the sea or the intrigue of a well-spun tale, these author visits are sure to inspire.

WILLOW CANYON'S NEXT ADVENTURE: NEW OWNERS, SAME BELOVED SPIRIT

For nearly 30 years, Willow Canyon Outdoor in Kanab has been more than just a bookstore, coffee shop, and gear shop—it's been a gathering place, a launchpad for adventure, and a cornerstone of the local community. Now, as longtime owners Charlie Neumann and Susan Hand pass the torch, Willow Canyon enters a new chapter with fresh but familiar faces: Kieran Corrigan and Melanie Rader.

Originally founded in 1994, Willow Canyon became an institution in Kanab, offering "Killer Coffee," an eclectic book selection, and high-quality outdoor gear. Charlie and Susan, who stumbled into Kanab and never left, cultivated a space that reflected the spirit of the high desert. Now, Kieran and Melanie—longtime outdoor guides—are taking on the responsibility of continuing that legacy.

New Owners, Same Passion for Adventure - Kieran and Melanie met while guiding in the Grand Staircase and formed a bond over coffee on Willow Canyon's back porch. "We wanted a deeper connection to the people and community we live in," Kieran shares. "Willow has always been our favorite place, and when the opportunity came up, we jumped at the chance to keep it going."

Melanie, an ultra-endurance runner and Grand Canyon aficionado, has completed and blazed numerous trails in the region. Her real-world experience makes her the perfect fit for curating the store's outdoor gear and apparel selection. "We're not just selling products," she says. "We're helping people prepare for real adventure."

Kieran, a former geology student at Fort Lewis College and an experienced climbing, canyoneering, and rafting guide, brings his deep appreciation for the land to the mix. Having explored the Southwest extensively, he understands what outdoor enthusiasts need.

Keeping the Willow Spirit Alive - Though ownership has changed, the heart of Willow Canyon remains the same. The store will continue to offer top-tier outdoor gear, thoughtfully selected books, and expertly crafted coffee while prioritizing sustainability and locally sourced products.

"Our goal is to maintain what Charlie and Susan built while bringing in fresh energy," Kieran says. "At Willow Canyon, coffee brings people together, books inspire exploration, and our gear helps people take their story onto the trail."

Whether you're a longtime local or just passing through, Willow Canyon remains the perfect spot to fuel up, stock up, and connect with the outdoors.

Find Willow Canyon at 263 S 100 E, Kanab, Utah, and visit willowcanyon.com for more details.

BUCKSKIN TAVERN GETS NEW MENU AND MUCH MORE

Fredonia, AZ

The Buckskin Tavern, just over the state line from Kanab in Fredonia AZ, is under new ownership and management. Taylor and Stephanie, the new owners, invite you to enjoy their hospitality. Taylor and Stephanie have visited southern Utah their whole lives and now live in Fredonia. With backgrounds in hospitality, they are adding a full menu of house made tavern food to complement the Buckskin's beverage service and historic atmosphere. Hours of operation are expanding in April to seven days a week from noon till closing and the kitchen will be open for all those hours. Come join them for lunch!

2020, the Buckskin reopened its doors in early 2023 with a huge effort to spruce up the place while keeping the charm from the days gone by.

The new menu includes a house smoked pulled pork sandwich with homemade coleslaw and Carolina mustard sauce, the famous Buck Burger, award winning firefighter's chili, French fries, nachos and a host of other tavern fair. They also feature amazing vegetarian and vegan choices.

Taylor and Stephanie are now adding their award-winning tavern food to the array of activities the Buckskin has become known for, with live music most weekends and other events like Karaoke, Trivia, Wine Tastings, Pool Tournaments and Game Nights. Enjoy the 3 pool tables, foosball, corn hole, and 7 TVs to relax and watch sports. They have an outdoor Beer Garden with an incredible view looking west over the vermilion cliffs, to which they are adding a stage for live bands.

The Buckskin Tavern was first built on the Utah/Arizona border in 1934. Milt Cram was catering to cowboys and local ranch folk. Considering how notoriously difficult it was to get a drink in Utah then, the tavern was a welcome addition to the area. The Buckskin, being right across the border, made it a popular watering hole for many locals, travelers, visitors and movie makers that were visiting Kanab and Fredonia. After closing during covid in Come enjoy their food together with 12 beers on tap and a great selection of wine, cocktails, nonalcoholic choices AND package liquor to go. They are within an hour of Zion, The Grand Canyon North Rim, Bryce and Lake Powell.

HALVERSEN CONCERT SPOTLIGHTS FIVE OUTSTANDING SOLOISTS

By Sara Penny

April 17, 2025 - Cedar City, UT

Five outstanding soloists will perform with the Orchestra of Southern Utah (OSU) on Thursday, April 17, at 7:30 PM in the Heritage Theatre in Cedar City. Tickets are available at mysou.org. In addition to the solo pieces, OSU will perform the Easter Overture by Rimsky-Korsakov, which features several soloists within the orchestra.

This Young Artist Concert honors the memory of Roy L. Halversen, who was instrumental in expanding orchestral music in Cedar City as a college professor. Some of his students still play with OSU.

Leah Kim Keyes, flutist, will perform Gordeli Concertino for Flute and Orch, Op. 8. A junior at Woods Cross High School in Bountiful, she was a Salute to Youth soloist with the Utah Symphony in fall 2024. Leah is a four-time first-place winner of the State MTNA solo division and the State UMTA Concerto competition. In 2024, she won the Grand Prize of the Southwest Symphony Young Artist Competition.

Hannah Bradshaw will perform Andante and Rondo Ungarese featuring the viola, a piece with Hungarian and gypsy influences. From Cedar City, she has performed for 18 years with music degrees from SUU and the University of Colorado-Boulder. She has served as principal violist for several orchestras and has played with prominent musicians like Marie Osmond and David Archuleta.

Kloie Humes presents the Bassoon Concerto in F by Weber. The Kannarville musician is an SUU graduate working towards a performance master's degree. Her teachers have included Dr. Virginia Stitt, Dr. Emily Grady, and Dr. Ben Bradshaw.

Trevyn Karkula will perform the third movement of the Piano Concerto in F by Gershwin. The 14-year-old from St. George has been playing piano for six years and has studied with Brandon Lee, Mark Gubler, and Nancy Allred.

Sophie Wilkes shares Gypsy Airs for Violin, also known as Zigeunerweisen by Sarasate. She started violin at age five with Kristen Candland in St. George and also works with Jenny Oaks Baker on violin and Jason Bonham on viola. The 13-year-old played in the Salute to Youth concert in 2023 with the Utah Symphony and is involved in ensembles and orchestras at the local and state level.

"We had an incredible showing of talent at the auditions for this concert," said Carylee Zwang, OSU Music Director. Alternates were Amanda Drake, Calli Price, and Elaina McEntee.

Assistant Conductor David Jordan will conduct the soloist pieces, with Zwang conducting the Easter Overture. This Romantic era piece transforms music from the Orthodox liturgy into a memorable masterpiece. Rimsky-Korsakov described it as celebrating both "the legendary and heathen side of the holiday, the transition from the gloomy and mysterious evening of Passion Saturday to the unbridled pagan-religious merrymaking on Easter Sunday morning."

Lobby music starts at 6:45 PM and features the Utah Peaks Players from Salt Lake and Utah counties, led by Lauri Driggs, Nicole Macias, and Terry Fulwider. The group originated in 2022.

Student tickets are $5, and adult tickets are $15. Tickets are available at mysou.org. Children over six are welcome with supervision; no babies, please, as the concert will be recorded.

ST. GEORGE GETS WILD, WEIRD AND UNHINGED

April 21, 2025 - St. George, UT

Red Rock Film Festival's Award Night - Starting as a film series in 2004, Southern Utah's Red Rock Film Festival is back, diving into the unexpected. On April 21, St. George's Electric Theater hosts the winners from last year's Festival, including Best Animation, Best Fiction and Best Documentary along with clips from the Best Features selected from hundreds of films.

"For Eric", by German filmmakers Christopher Schlierf and Ben Blaskovic, follows a man confronting his past in the Utah desert. As part-time St. George residents, the directors bring a personal touch to the Utah landscapes, making a deeply emotional story.

Winner of Best Cinematography in a Documentary Short, Joseph Adam LeBaron's The Whales of the High Desert blurs the lines between legend and reality, exploring the 19th-century myth of whales in the Great Salt Lake!

Arjan Brentjes' "The Grand Book" is a 1920s-inspired dystopian animation blending silent-era aesthetics with German expressionism in a world of omnipresent surveillance of film cameras, where dreams become an escape from reality. Red Rock Grand Jury member and executive producer of Oscar® nominated animated short "Ninety-Five Senses" praised its "Beautiful production design with an interesting use of 3D graphics." Similarly, "Le Charade", a stop-motion comedy by Erika Totoro, explores identity through the perspective of a mime struggling with loneliness in a 1950s diner.

"Space Coast", directed by Justin Barber, captures the anticipation surrounding the Artemis-1 launch while highlighting the skepticism of a Space Shuttle Program veteran. News & Documentary Emmy nominee and Grand Jury member Brad Barber (no relation) said,

"The imagery was startling, and the stakes felt high. The filmmakers effectively capture multiple, complicated aspects of this latest launch."

"Strangers Under My Skin" takes an artistic approach to mortality, portraying an aging, blind painter who regains his vision in his final moments, allowing him to create one last masterpiece.

In Zoe Zheng's "What She Didn't Know" a colorblind girl experiences color through playing the piano. Hand-drawn animation emphasizes the emotional depth, creativity and perception. Frédérique Buck's "You Kai" blends animation and live-action to depict a refugee's imagined escape from displacement, reflecting on survival and hope. Grand Jury member and Oscar® nominee Tom Van Avermaet said, "I loved how the filmmakers created an inventive world to show the harsh reality of refugees in Calais through the eyes of one lost girl."

Playing right after Easter, these films promise themes of transformation, resilience, and self-discovery. Whether through the rediscovery of a lost past, the power of dreams, or the reinvention of identity, the Red Rock Film Festival's Awards Night remains a must-see event.

For these "fresh perspectives and groundbreaking cinema" come to the Electric Theater on 68 E Tabernacle St, Saint George on Monday, April 21 at 7 pm. General Admission is Free at the door or get reserved seating for just $5 in advance at redrockfilmfestival.eventive.org/passes/buy.

Filmmakers wanting to enter the next season may submit films at filmfreeway.com/redrockfilmfestival - The Late Deadline is April 23, 2025.

HIKING: SOUTHERN UTAH BONE WASH TRAIL IN THE RED CLIFFS DESERT RESERVE

By Tom Garrison

Location: Red Cliffs Desert Reserve, Utah.

Difficulty: A moderately strenuous hike due to slogging through about two miles of loose sand.

Average Hiking Time: About 2 ½ hours at a leisurely pace with many photo stops for this 4.2-mile out-and-back hike.

Elevations: 3,077 feet trailhead elevation with an approximately 225 feet elevation gain from the trailhead to the highest point.

Family Friendly: Other than walking through a lot of loose sand, there are no obstacles preventing young children from doing this hike. We saw several kids and dogs on the hike.

Finding the Trailhead: Drive north on Main Street in Washington City and cross under Interstate 15. Immediately after crossing under the Interstate is a four way stop with Buena Vista Boulevard being the cross street. Continue north on Main Street and at ½ mile from the intersection is another intersection with Washington Parkway. Turn left (west) onto the Parkway and very quickly, within about 100 yards, turn right (north) onto a major dirt road marked with a large sign reading "Alternative Trail Access Mill Creek & Dino Cliffs." Stay on the main track (heading north), alongside a string of power poles in a north-south orientation, for .8 mile on this mostly good dirt road, the first section is rocky with some large dips, to the Mill Creek Trailhead which is also the Bone Wash Trailhead. The trailhead is designated by a fence with a stepover and a closed gate. The Mill Creek Trail sign is just beyond the gate. There is ample parking for several cars, a good thing since there were already five cars parked when we arrived at 9:30 am. And double that number when we returned to the trailhead 2 ½ hours later.

Mojave Desert, the Great Basin Desert, and the Colorado Plateau—merge in southwestern Utah and the Reserve reflects the biological diversity of this unique region.

The Mill Creek Trailhead has an elevation of 3,077 feet. The hike is about 4.2 miles round trip with a 225 feet elevation change that took us about 2 ½ hours at a leisurely pace. The temperature was in the low-50s with a hazy overcast sky for our early spring (late March) hike. We followed Mill Creek Trail north about .3 mile to the signed Bone Wash Trail junction and took the trail (actually a fairly wide dirt road) to the right (northeast).

After about .6 mile from the junction we reached a pumping station and went down a short incline into Bone Wash. The wide sandy wash is the trail for the next .5 miles. A half mile through loose sand is not much fun, but we were distracted by the views and close by red rock formations with weird erosion patterns. Approximately .5 miles along Bone Wash (about 1.4 miles from the trailhead) we reached the Elephant Arch Trail junction to the right. Unsigned Bone Wash Trail continues to the left (north) through a small 100 feet long slot.

We had been at this junction a couple of times going to Elephant Arch. This time we were going to explore new territory in upper Bone Wash.

Upper Bone Wash widens into a larger red sandstone canyon with numerous strange sandstone formations, small arches, side canyons to explore, and a large box canyon at the end. Unfortunately, most of this section of the trail continues to be soft sand. The varied red sandstone formations are alone worth the hike. About .7 mile from the Elephant Arch junction (2.1 miles from the trailhead) we reached the head of a box canyon—the end of the signed trail.

If you want more exploring, there is a user trail about 100 yards south of the end of the box canyon on the left (west) as you walk up canyon. This takes you around the box canyon and further up the wash. Be aware that this user trail requires frequent rock scrambling. This user trail goes another .8 mile one way from the box canyon. It ends for most people where the canyon narrows and large rock falls obstruct further travel.

We began our return trip upon reaching the head of the box canyon. We did not take the user trail. You might want to, but we are both in our 70s and decided against rock scrambling and another 1.6 miles round trip added to our hike.

During our hike, we saw and talked to more than 35 people. I always asked if they were going to Elephant Arch. Everyone answered "yes." Not surprisingly, we did not see another soul in upper Bone Wash. If you want a hike that isn't crowded and the latter part is spectacular, give Bone Wash Trail a try.

The great Utah southwest desert is the source of many wonders—amazing red rock formations, slot canyons, arches, side canyons, and tough flora and fauna. The latest adventure for me and my wife Deb is exploring Bone Wash Trail in the Red Cliffs Desert Reserve. It contains several of the natural wonders we love.

The Red Cliffs Desert Reserve was established in 1996 to protect a large and diverse habitat capable of sustaining wildlife populations threatened by development and habitat loss. It comprises 62,000 acres and has more than 130 miles of shared use trails for hiking, horseback riding, and mountain biking. Three ecosystems—the

THE INDEPENDENT MOVIE REVIEW

By Adam Mast

“Novocaine” ultimately squanders its high concept premise.

Not to be confused with the Steve Martin-headlined film from 2001, this “Novocaine” is a completely different animal. One in which a high concept (a man who feels no pain gets his ass kicked repeatedly) and nepotism (this movie features both the son of Dennis Quaid and the son of Jack Nicholson) battle it out for supremacy. In the end, though, despite a handful of entertaining moments and a fair share of action sequences, the real loser of this battle ends up being the audience.

In the actioneer/dark comedy that is “Novocaine,” Quaid plays Nate, an unassuming, good-hearted individual whose rare affliction comes in handy when he’s getting punched or taking a bullet but said affliction also comes with its downsides. Imagine not being able to tell if you’re going to bleed out. This is to say nothing of the fact that the guy can’t even eat ice cream because doing so might result in him biting his own tongue off. Yep. It sucks to be Nate.

The plot of “Novocaine” springs into action when a girl (played by Amber Midthunder of “Prey”) that Nate takes a liking to is kidnapped. Rather than turning a blind eye to the situation, this often aloof individual opts to engage in a mission to save her but it won’t be easy because the man (played by Ray Nicholson) behind this woman’s kidnapping is a real unsavory (and violent) type. Of course, what this unhinged baddie doesn’t realize is that he’s about to deal with a guy who can’t feel anything.

As directed by Dan Berk and Robert Olsen, “Novocaine” doesn’t quite live up to its said high concept premise. It’s a movie that feels reminiscent of 2006’s high-octane “Crank” and Sam Raimi’s underappreciated “Darkman” yet it can’t seem to conjure up the hyper-kinetic silliness of the former or the visual bravado of the latter. Instead, despite a fairly brisk pace, a plethora of violence, and quite a few action scenes, there’s something rather lifeless about this movie.

Sadly, a big part of the problem here is that Jack Quaid doesn’t quite bring it. Sure, he has moments (a bit in which he pretends to hurt when he’s being tortured by one of the film’s big bads is actually pretty inspired) and there’s no doubt that he inherited his dad’s signature grin but in the end, he hasn’t quite got the charisma or the overall chops to carry an entire action movie on his shoulders. A shame, too, because despite my playful nepotism jab at the top of this review, it’s not like the guy hasn’t worked hard to get where he’s at. Still, for my money, he simply didn’t keep me invested in what was happening.

“Novocaine” isn’t a straight up bad movie. It’s just kind of a forgettable one. On par with the mediocrity that was the recently-released “Love Hurts,” another high concept actioneer/comedy that simply reminds one of better movies (think “John Wick” and “Nobody”) instead of taking on an identity of its own. Where the overall generic plots and lack of romantic chemistry at the heart of them is concerned, I don’t know that either but ultimately, I’d give “Love Hurts” the edge because Ke Huy Quan is simply more lovable and charming as the central protagonist than Jack Quaid is in this picture. In the end, this movie just kind of made me feel like its lead character; numb.

THE 2025 DESERTSCAPE INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL RETURNS TO THE ELECTRIC THEATER

April 16-19, 2025 - St. George, UT

The 501(c)(3) nonprofit, Film and Media Alliance of Southern Utah, proudly presents the return of the 2025 Desertscape International Film Festival. DIFF 2025 will take place in beautiful St. George, UT from Wednesday, April 16th through Saturday, April 19th with the majority of the screenings and events taking place at the historic Electric Theater. The second half of this epic 4-day cinematic event will, once again, coincide with the long-running St. George Art Festival and this will only add to the magic of the proceedings. This celebration of independent cinema will feature over 40 films—shorts and features—from all around the world. Multiple countries and genres will be represented throughout the festival and programmers promise to showcase a little something for everyone.

mentary feature “Standout: The Ben Kjar Story” traces the life of affable wrestler Ben Kjar who refused to let a craniofacial disorder keep him from achieving his goals. This is a rousing, uplifting winner that’s structured like a sports underdog movie but it’s so much more than that. It’s also a film about perseverance, determination, and family. Kjar will be on hand for the screening and he’ll also be hosting a free wrestling clinic at Pineview High School on the morning of Saturday, April 19th.

Desertscape will close out its highly-anticipated 2025 fest with a screening of the crowd-pleasing North Macedonian import, “DJ Ahmet.” Fresh off of its Audience Choice win at the Sundance Film Festival this past January, this gem from writer/director Georgi M. Unkovski tells the tale of a young 15 year-old Yurok boy who looks to escape the societal pressures of his small town life through the power of electronic dance music. DIFF is thrilled to bring this movie to you, lovable screaming sheep and all.

Of course, these titles only scratch the surface! It’s quite the slate of features and shorts!

The entire list of 2025 Desertscape International Film Festival official selections can be found at fmasu.com/desertscape.

In addition to amazing films, you can also expect plenty of outstanding alternative programming. Desertscape will offer industry panels with special guests, a live script read, opening and closing night after parties, networking opportunities, an awards ceremony, and more. And with the second half of the festival coinciding with the venerable St. George Art Festival, there will be no shortage of artistic sights to see. Included; A live performance by Yachty By Nature. Last but certainly not least, DIFF 2025 takes place in one of the most beautiful areas of the U.S. Come for the films...Stay for the breathtaking sights!

Safety Tips For Zion

Emergencies

For 24-hour emergency response, call 911 or (435) 772-3322. The Zion Canyon Medical Clinic is located in Springdale near the south entrance to the park. For hours, please call (435) 772-3226. Other medical clinics are located in Hurricane. The nearest hospitals are in St. George, Cedar City, and Kanab.

Hydrate and use refillable water bottles

It is easy to get dehydrated while hiking and walking in the desert, so pack along extra water, and be sure to take rest and water breaks on long hikes. There are a number of places to refill your water bottles in Zion National Park including the visitors' center and Zion Lodge as well as a new hydration station at the Springdale bus stop in front of The Bumbleberry Inn and Zion Canyon Brew Pub.

Be cautious near steep cliffs

Falls from cliffs on trails can result in death. Loose sand or pebbles on stone are very slippery. Be careful of edges when using cameras or binoculars. Never throw or roll rocks because there may be hikers below you. Stay on the trail. Stay back from cliff edges. Observe posted warnings. Please watch children.

Watch for flash floods

All narrow canyons are potentially hazardous. Flash floods, often caused by storms miles away, are a real danger and can be life threatening. You are assuming a risk when entering a narrow canyon. Your safety is your responsibility.

Tips To Minimize Your Impact

Pack it in, pack it out & use recycling bins

Each month, Zion National Park pays many thousands of dollars to haul away waste collected from garbage cans and recycling bins. Your experience and that of everyone who visits Zion Canyon can be improved by never littering and making sure you pick up any trash you see along the way. Recycling bins are placed strategically throughout Zion Park, and it is highly encouraged for everyone to use them.

Please stay on the marked trails

Hiking off trails can lead to loss of vegetation, soil compaction, erosion, and unsightly scars on the landscape. Remember, if you bring it in, please pack it out.

Go before you go

It is always a good idea to use the restroom before you begin a hike since facilities are limited to select locations. If you do need to take care of your business, please pack it back out.

Be respectful to the wildlife

Feeding, harming, or capturing wild animals is illegal and can cause injury or death to the animal. Animals can become aggressive beggars when fed.

Please leave it how you found it

It is illegal to remove anything from Zion National Park, including flowers, rocks, or anything else that you might find. Do not write or carve on natural surfaces.

Top Things To Do In Zion

Get some great hiking in

Zion National Park is known for its scenic landscape and unrivaled hikes. No matter your fitness level, there are hikes here for you. Please go to ZionGuide.com to see the details on many area hikes.

Spend a day in Springdale

Springdale is unique to our national park system in that it is almost completely surrounded by Zion National Park. So when you're in Springdale, you're right in the middle of Zion Canyon.

Catch an event

Not only does Zion Brew Pub have live music every Saturday, the property also hosts a handful of events throughout the year, as do the Bit and Spur restaurant, Tanner Amphitheater, Bumbleberry Inn, Wildcat Willies, and several other locations.

Try a guided tour

Jeep, helicopter, ATV, canyoneering, horseback riding, or mountain biking, guided tours are all available. Many of these tours take you outside Zion National Park boundaries and give you a unique perspective on Zion's canyons and plateaus from surrounding areas of southern Utah. Check out ZionGuide.com for listings and ads.

Visit the east side of Zion and spend a day in Kanab

The east side of Zion is generally less crowded, making hikes more accessible and private. These are some of the most enjoyable hikes in the canyon. You can spot wildlife you won't see elsewhere in the canyon. The city of Kanab, situated east of the canyon, is full of unique attractions, like the Little Hollywood Movie Museum and the Best Friends Animal Sanctuary.

Take lots of pictures, leave only footprints

Be sure you've got extra charged batteries, smartphone cables, and memory cards so you can capture all the magic of Zion National Park. Additionally, there are numerous photo tour and guiding companies to assist you. Thank you for visiting the Zion National Park area.

Tips To Maximize Enjoyment

Go on a less crowded hike

The most visited Zion hikes have a lot of competition. If you'd rather not feel like you're in the line at a theme park, consider seeking out a less traveled path. Check out our feature, Less-Traveled Zion Hikes, in this issue.

To avoid the crowds, go early or late in the day

Consider getting up extra early or trekking out midday after the initial rush has flooded in.

Consider coming back again in the low season

Starting in the late fall, the number of visitors to Zion Canyon starts to dwindle, and by December it's significantly less than in the heat of the summer. It is simply a different experience to see Zion in the winter with the snow-capped monoliths. Most hikes are still accessible and are less crowded. You can also drive to the Temple of Sinawava parking lot. The shuttles stop running from November until March.

Check out Kolob Canyons & Kolob Terrace Road

With gorgeous open spaces and plenty of dirt roads to explore, Kolob Terrace Road is one of Zion's best kept secrets. You'll notice the air getting cooler as you gain elevation, and you'll find plenty of beautiful views worth stopping at for a quick photo op. The Kolob Terrace Road turnoff is in Virgin, so watch for signs. Portions of the Kolob Canyon District of Zion National Park are reached via Exit 40 on Interstate 15.

Zion National Park Hiking Info

THE LOCALS' GUIDE TO HIKING PREPAREDNESS

National parks are seeing an uptick in helicopters carrying unfortunate hikers out of precarious situations.

In 2017, the National Park Service reported 324 search-and-rescue operations, which means 324 extremely unpleasant vacation experiences — nearly one a day. In 2014, the reported number was almost half that. The majority of those rescues occurred in Zion and Bryce Canyon National Parks, and most hikers who end up getting into trouble are either in their 20s or are older than 60.

The National Park Service recommends that hikers bring one gallon of water per hiker per day. There are fill stations throughout Springdale and the park that provided filtered water at no charge.

Natural water sources in the park such as creeks and streams are not reliable sources of clean drinking water. If you find yourself in a situation wherein you need water but have none, it is strongly advised that any locally-sourced water intended for consumption first be filtered, boiled for at least 10 minutes, or treated with iodine before consuming.

Wear appropriate clothing

While most paths and trails are well maintained, this is the great outdoors, and a little loose gravel or slickrock can lead to injury — or worse. Think of appropriate footwear as an insurance policy — and if you are a little nervous, a hiking stick never hurts. Also, dress lightly if it's going to be hot, but be sure to use appropriate sun protection like sunscreen and large-brimmed hats, because suffering from sunstroke or severe sunburn during an already taxing hike can be brutal.

Leave wildlife alone

Animals instinctively avoid humans, but the area is home to everything from poisonous snakes to mountain lions. Never approach local wildlife — and never try to feed them. This can result in injury to visitors, and numerous visitors have required stitches after attempting to hand-feed animals. But when humans feed wildlife, it's also not good for the animals, who are already best suited to feed themselves.

Hike sober

Sometimes relatively stationary outdoor activities like boating or camping involve enjoying an adult beverage or two. But when you're hiking the varied terrain of our national parks, you don't want your coordination, balance, or judgment to be impaired to any extent. Zion Canyon, Springdale, and Kanab are home to several fine restaurants and bars — but visit them for a cocktail after your hike, not before.

Hike at your skill level, and don't take risks

Trails in Zion range from short and easy to long and challenging. Don't overestimate your ability and endurance level. And don't engage in horseplay or other activity that might endanger yourself or others. Some of Zion's hikes are steep, and you wouldn't be the first person to tumble down a hill — or worse, fall off a cliff. Zion is beautiful, but it's also dangerous, so respect yourself and others by respecting the terrain.

Despite our highly skilled and dedicated rescue teams' valiant efforts, not everyone made it out of their predicaments safely. Twelve people lost their lives in Utah's national parks in 2017 alone.

It's hard to imagine one wanting a vacation amid the splendor of our national parks to involve search and rescue teams or a close encounter with death.

Zion National Park is often referred to as an outdoor Disneyland. But this is the wilderness, and it's far less forgiving than any theme park. Here are some tips for how to safely enjoy your time in Zion Canyon.

Bring water

You lose more water through perspiration than you realize, and if you are used to a more moist climate — and nearly any climate is less arid than southern Utah — you can become dehydrated quickly without realizing it.

Northgate Peaks

By Don Gilman

The Northgate Peaks trail in the Kolob Terrace section of Zion National Park is an amazing trail with spectacular views. The trail itself is nearly flat, making it a perfect hike for families.

To reach the Northgate Peaks trailhead, take State Route 9 to the town of Virgin. Turn left onto Kolob Terrace Road. Drive for 15.7 miles through increasingly spectacular country until the short spur road (on the right) for the Wildcat Trailhead is reached. Drive a few hundred feet to the large parking area.

The trail heads east across grassy plains and stands of Ponderosa Pine with dynamite views of the towering Pine Valley Peak to the west. Soon the trail will be fully in the forest with limited views. After 0.9 miles, the junction with the Hop Valley trail is reached. Continue east, and 0.1 miles further, the junction with the Northgate Peaks Trail is reached. Head south on this trail for another 1.1 miles until the end of the official trail is reached at a rocky basalt bluff with epic views of the Northgate Peaks to the east and west and of North Guardian Angel to the south.

For families with young children, this makes an excellent turnaround spot.

Gifford Canyon

By Bo Beck

Gifford Canyon offers a nice stroll through a sandy wash and is very charming when water is running. This hike is nearly 3 miles long and will take about 2 hours to finish.

To start this hike, park in the lot located immediately east of the Zion/Mt. Carmel Tunnel. The trail begins at the backside of the restrooms at the back of the parking lot. There will be a steep, sandy path to climb down before you enter Pine Creek slot. Follow the path upstream for almost 75 feet, and look for a 15-foot wall of slickrock. You can scramble up the rock or look for the beaten path on the backside of the rock.

On top of this wall is a narrow dirt path that is crowded by rock and vegetation. It winds around the mountain to a dead end with a beautiful view of the mountain where the Canyon Overlook Trail is located, opposite is Gifford Canyon.

The path will lead past stone bridge and to another minor slickrock climb. At the end of the canyon, there is a circle of cliffs preventing further exploration without climbing up the sandstone.

Chinle Trail

By Greta Hyland

Chinle Trail is an off-the-beaten-path trail located in the lower elevation west desert wilderness area, offering wide vistas, desert landscapes, and a reprieve from the more touristy trails in the park. Though it's a long trail, it's a mellow hike that can be cut off whenever you feel like turning around. It's a great hike with kids because it's not treacherous, slippery, or steep. Avoid it after snow or rain as it will be muddy.

The Chinle Trailhead starts outside of Zion, south of Springdale. If you are coming from St. George, the turn is about a block before you hit the apple orchard and stand as you leave Rockville off of State Route 9. There is a parking area off the right of Anasazi Way near the Anasazi Plateau housing development. If you hit houses, you missed it. And yes, the trail starts below the housing development and takes you right through it. Don't worry though, it doesn't last long.

Shortly after you get through the housing development, you will hit a sign letting you know you are entering the Zion Wilderness. At this point, you can breathe a sigh of relief, because you have gotten away from civilization to enjoy nature, and chances are that you won't see another soul until you return to your car.

Many Pools

By Candice Reed

The route is moderate with a gentle uphill climb to an alcove, but plan for a strenuous hike if you continue to the East Rim.

The route begins right off the highway. Drive to the pullout near the second drainage on the north side of the State Route 9, about 0.8 miles after the smaller tunnel. Walk carefully along the road about 150 yards and drop down into a sandy bowl on the north side of SR-9. There is a trail for a short distance, and then the sand turns into large flat stones that you can pick and choose to walk on, depending on your sense of balance. A short distance off the road, filled pools carved into the rocks appear. Ponderosa Pines and Juniper trees twisted by the wind are a good backdrop to the reds and whites ribboned through the rocks.

Overlook Trail

By Charlotte Emett

The Overlook Trail is a short, beautiful hike located on the east side of Zion National Park, just outside the Mt. Carmel tunnel. The hike is about one mile roundtrip, and it usually takes people about an hour. It is definitely one of the easier hikes in Zion, but it's still considered a moderate-level hike due to a few exposed areas and sandstone pathways, which can be slippery.

The Overlook trailhead lies right outside of the Mt. Carmel tunnel by the ranger booth. Exit the tunnel too quickly and you'll miss it.

It begins with a staircase carved out of the sandstone leading up and away from the road. Soon, you'll be walking along the side of the mountain and looking down into a thin crevice known as Pine Creek Canyon. At about halfway, you'll walk across a bridge that wraps around a corner and leads to an area of recessed rock wet with the moisture that caused it to erode and be filled with ferns growing out of the sandstone.

The East Rim Trail

By Bo Beck and Tanya Milligan

After positioning a vehicle or making shuttle arrangements at the Weeping Rock parking lot, watch for the small "trailhead" sign along the Zion-Mt. Carmel Highway, immediately west of the east entrance booth.

This trail is said to be one of the most scenic in all of Zion National Park and is on many lists as one of the best hikes in Utah. This trek begins on the east side of the park and climbs over 1,400 feet to the rim. This hike begins with a backdoor view of Checkerboard Mesa as it skirts Clear Creek for a short time and steadily and gently climbs through a juniper and pine forest. On top of the mesa, scenery gets interesting as a spectacular view of Echo Canyon takes center stage.

Popular Zion Hikes

Current Trail Closures

Road to Lava Point and West Rim Trailhead closed - This is a regular, seasonal closure, and we will change when snow melts. Lava Point Overlook is also closed. Closed trail bridge at Zion Lodge (Shuttle Stop #5) - To access Emerald Pools, start your hike at the Court of the Patriarchs (Shuttle Stop #4) or the Grotto (Shuttle Stop #6). Weeping Rock Shuttle Bus Stop, Due to rockfall, the area near Weeping Rock is temporarily closed. Toxic Cyanobacteria in the Virgin River and the streams of Zion National Park - Do not submerge your head in or filter drinking water from still or moving water.

Warning: These hikes are very popular and often overcrowded. If you are feeling up to some of the more difficult hikes, try some of these popular hikes.

Angels Landing via West Rim Trail

Possibly the most popular hike in Zion, Angels Landing takes around four hours to complete, covers just under 5 1/2 miles, and requires a permit to hike. As you work your way up the 1,488-foot change in elevation, you'll want to look out for long drop-offs. This hike is not for young children or people with a fear of heights. Be sure to enjoy, but be careful along the last section of the hike, which is a steep, narrow ridge to the summit. The hike starts at The Grotto.

The Narrows via Riverside Walk

A full-day hike at 8 hours, the Narrows can pose extra dangers depending on the weather. High water levels can prevent access to the Narrows, so be sure to check with the visitor center before beginning this 9 1/2-mile hike. You'll start this hike at Temple of Sinawava.

Kolob Arch via La Verkin Creek Trail

Getting to Kolob Arch via the La Verkin

Creek Trail follows Timber and La Verkin creeks and connects to the trail to Kolob Arch, one of the world's largest freestanding arches. A full-day hike, it will take around 8 hours to finish the 14-fourteen mile trip. This hike starts at Kolob Canyons Road.

If you are looking for something more moderate, try some of these mid-range hikes.

Kayenta Trail

This two-hour hike starts at the Grotto and goes for two miles. You'll gain 150 feet in elevation, and the trail does have long drop-offs. This unpaved climb connects the Grotto to the Emerald Pools trails.

Canyon Overlook Trail

Starting at Zion-Mt. Carmel Highway, this one-hour hike provides a 163-foot gain in elevation over the course of a mile. This rocky and uneven trail ends at a viewpoint for Pine Creek Canyon and lower Zion Canyon. While this trail is mostly fenced, there are long drop-offs.

Taylor Creek Trail

You'll begin this five-mile hike at Kolob Canyons Road. It should take around 4 hours to complete and provides a 450-foot gain in elevation. Larger groups may need to split up, as this hike limits 12 people to a group. It follows the Middle Fork of Taylor Creek past two homestead cabins to Double Arch Alcove.

Timber Creek Overlook Trail

A quick hike, the Timber Creek Overlook Trail covers just one mile and 100 feet in elevation gain. It can be done in about 30 minutes. The trail follows a ridge to a small peak with views of Timber Creek, Kolob Terrace, and Pine Valley Mountains.

Those looking for something less strenuous should check out these easy hikes.

Pa'rus Trail

Starting at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, this two-hour hike covers 3 1/2 miles and rises 50 feet in elevation. A paved trail that follows the Virgin River from the South Campground to Canyon Junction, Pa'rus Trail is wheelchair accessible and is open to both bicycles and dogs.

Archeology Trail

Also starting at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, this short half-hour hike covers just under half a mile and rises 80 feet in elevation, making it a short but steep trail. This trail offers trailside exhibits and views of several prehistoric buildings.

Grotto Trail

Starting at Zion Lodge or the Grotto, this trail connects the two locations and can be combined with the Middle Emerald Pools and Kayenta trails to create a 2 1/2-mile loop. The non-loop version should take about 30 minutes and rises 35 feet over one mile.

Riverside Walk

Starting at Temple of Sinawava, this 1 1/2-hour hike cover just over two miles and rises 57 feet in elevation. While it is wheelchair accessible, there are minor drop-offs. The trail, which is paved, offers trailside exhibits as it follows the Virgin Rivet along the bottom of a narrow canyon.

Southern Utah State & National Parks

ANASAZI STATE PARK MUSEUM - This ancient Indian village in the heart of Utah's canyon country was one of the largest Anasazi communities west of the Colorado River. The site is believed to have been occupied from A.D. 1050 to 1200. The village remains largely unexcavated, but many artifacts have been uncovered and are on display in the newly remodeled museum. Anasazi State Park is in the picturesque town of Boulder on State Route 12. Group and individual picnic areas are available. There is no camping. (435) 335-7308.

BAKER - Baker Reservoir is a small lake on the Santa Clara River four miles north of Veyo on Utah State Route 18. It is a 63-acre lake with an average depth of about 20 feet. Many people come to the reservoir to camp at one of its 10 campsites and to fish. The reservoir is stocked with rainbow trout and contains brown trout, green sunfish, crayfish, redbreast shiner, and mountain sucker. It has picnic areas and vault toilets. There is a fee for visiting the reservoir and no boat ramp.

BRYCE CANYON - Bryce Canyon National Park is a scientist's laboratory and a child's playground. Because Bryce transcends 2,000 feet of elevation, the park exists in three distinct climatic zones: spruce/fir forest, ponderosa pine forest and pinion pine/juniper forest. This diversity of habitat provides for high biodiversity. Here at Bryce, you can enjoy over 100 species of birds, dozens of mammals, and more than a thousand plant species. (435) 834-5322.

CEDAR BREAKS - Sitting at over 10,000 feet and looking down into a half-mile deep geologic amphitheater. Come wander among timeless bristlecone pines, stand in lush meadows of wildflowers, ponder crystal-clear night skies and experience the richness of our subalpine forest. Just four miles off Utah Highway 148, you'll find the Cedar Breaks National Monument parking lot.

CORAL PINK SAND DUNES - At an elevation of 6,000 feet and 12 paved miles off U.S. Highway 89 near Kanab, this park provides a fantastic setting for camping, hiking, OHV riding or just playing in the sand. A 265-acre conservation area prohibits motorized vehicles in order to protect the Coral Pink beetle (found nowhere else in the world) and its habitat. The mule deer, jackrabbit, kit fox, coyote, and many small rodents also make the park their home. (435) 648-2800.

DEAD HORSE POINT - Dead Horse Point State Park is perhaps Utah's most spectacular state park. Dead Horse Point is a promontory of stone surrounded by steep cliffs near Moab. The overlook at Dead Horse Point is 6,000 feet above sea level. Two-thousand feet below, the Colorado River winds its way from the continental divide in Colorado to the Gulf of California, a distance of 1,400 miles. (435) 259-2614.

DINOSAUR TRACKS - The St. George Dinosaur Discovery Site at Johnson Farm is home to exceptionally well-preserved dinosaur tracks, some displaying skin impressions. These tracks, along with hundreds of fossil fish, plants, rare dinosaur remains, invertebrates' traces, and important sedimentary structures, show evidence that this site was produced along the western edge of a large, Early Jurassic (age between 195-198 million years ago) freshwater lake. (435) 574-3466.

ENTERPRISE - There are two reservoirs in the Bull Valley Mountains 10 miles southwest of the town of Enterprise. The main one is Upper Enterprise Reservoir, about 250 acres with an average depth of about 50 feet, while Lower Enterprise Reservoir is 79 acres. Many come to the reservoir to camp, fish hike, and boat. The Honeycomb Campground is situated between both lakes and has 21 campsites and flush toilets. There is a boat ramp on Upper Enterprise Reservoir and several fishing areas around both reservoirs. Fishermen will find rainbow trout and smallmouth bass here. Fees are charged.

FOUR CORNERS - The Four Corners is the only place in the U.S. where four states come together at one place: Arizona, New Mexico, Utah and Colorado. Here, a person can put each of their hands and feet in four states at the same time. The unique landmark is on Navajo Nation land and is open for visits from the public. West of U.S. Highway 160, 40 miles southwest of Cortez, Colo. (928) 871-6436.

GRAND CANYON - A World Heritage Site encompassing 1,218,375 acres on the Colorado Plateau in northwestern Arizona. The land is semi-arid and consists of raised plateaus and structural basins typical of the southwestern United States. (928) 638-7888.

GRAND STAIRCASE-ESCALANTE NATIONAL MONUMENT - Nearly 1.9 million acres of America's public lands and located between Bryce Canyon and Glen Canyon Recreational Areas. From its namesake Grand Staircase of cliffs and terraces across the rugged Kaiparowits Plateau to the beauty of the Escalante River Canyons, the Monument's size, resources, and isolated location provide amazing opportunities.

GUNLOCK - In scenic red rock country, 15 miles northwest of St. George, lies the 240-acre Gunlock State Park and Reservoir where year-round boating, water sports, and quality fishing for bass and catfish attract visitors. Facilities include boat launching ramp and pit privies. (435) 628-2255.

LAKE MEAD - Lake Mead National Recreation Area offers a wealth of things to do and places to go year-round. Its huge lakes cater to boaters, swimmers, sunbathers and fishermen, while its desert rewards hikers, wildlife photographers, and roadside sightseers. It is also home to thousands of desert plants and animals adapted to survive in an extreme place where rain is scarce and temperatures soar. (702) 293-8990.

LAKE POWELL - In Glen Canyon National Recreation Area is one of the world's great places for houseboating! The 186-mile-long lake offers sandy beaches, cool blue water, and exceptional red-rock scenery. It is excellent for boating, skiing, kayaking, and fishing. Boat or hike to Rainbow Bridge, or explore any of its many canyons or sand dunes. (928) 608-6200.

PINE VALLEY - Pine Valley Reservoir is a beautiful place for fishermen to fish brook trout and rainbow trout. The reservoir is near the Pine Valley Recreation Complex, which has over 150 campsites with picnic and restroom facilities. This area is greener than most other parts of southwestern Utah with pine and pinion trees, and many come to enjoy camping and hiking. It is west of the town of Central. (435) 652-3100.

QUAIL LAKE - Quail Creek State Park provides excellent year-round camping, picnicking, boating, and trout and bass fishing in sunny southwest Utah. The park is three miles east of the Interstate 15 Hurricane exit on Utah State Route 9. Facilities include 23 campsites, modern restrooms, a fish cleaning station, and two covered group-use pavilions. (435) 879-2378.

SAND HOLLOW - Looking to fish? Swim? Ride your ATV in the sand? Do all that and more at Sand Hollow State Park, located between St. George and Hurricane. Bring your boat, a picnic, and some fishing gear for a fun day on the reservoir, or watch the kids swim while you relax on the beach. Load up your RV or tent and settle in for a nice campout, or ride your ATV in the dunes of Sand Mountain. (435) 680-0715.

SNOW CANYON - Named after early Utah leaders Lorenzo and Erastus Snow, Snow Canyon State Park begins just outside of Ivins and stretches northward. Spectacular scenery includes towering red and white sandstone cliffs, black lava formations, and even a waterfall that appears during heavy rain. Snow Canyon offers 16 miles of hiking trails, beautiful sand dunes, technical rock climbing sites, horseback riding, year-round camping, nature studies, and wildlife viewing. This park is a favorite for locals and visitors alike. (435) 628-2255.

ZION - With breathtaking views, numerous hiking attractions of all difficulty levels and some of the most spectacular scenery on earth, Zion National Park and its surrounding areas attract thousands of visitors every year. This natural wonder is not only a mecca of recreational activity, but Zion and nearby Springdale host numerous cultural activities, as well. There's something for everyone in Zion - whether you're looking for a challenging hike or a fun excursion for the family. (435) 772-3256.
