GOLD RIVER GALLERY - SOUTHERN UTAH'S NEW PREMIER FINE ART DESTINATION

The name “Gold River” was inspired by owner Travis Humphrey’s vision of gold flowing through his hands onto frames, symbolizing the merging of artistry and craftsmanship. A river of creativity and heritage flows through interest to residents as well as the people who visit. Art can be many things, but at its core art is about supporting creativity, free thought, and the creation of history through the eyes of an artist.

To help you start your art journey, Gold River Gallery will be doing a giveaway of an original painting and more. Everyone who visits the gallery in the month of May will be eligible. Along with the giveaway, the gallery will be hosting events throughout the year that will be engaging and fun, starting with a painting demonstration on May 3rd by gallery owner Travis Humphreys.

The Humphreys family moved to Cedar City in 1999 with three young children, intent on creating a life filled with opportunity. What started as a frame-making venture that serves clients across 35 states evolved into a fine art gallery that features nationally recognized artists. Gold River Gallery showcases creations by talented regionally well-known and local artists, including:

Charles Muench, Josh Elliott, Ryan Skidmore, Spike Ress, Ron Rencher, Roland Lee, Kimberly Beck, Josh Elliott, G. Russell Case, Travis Humphreys, and sculpture artist Jeff Wolf. These are just a few of the artists that they feature and look forward to introducing you to many of the other amazing artists they have at the gallery.

Gold River Gallery stands out, not just because of their handcrafted frames made in house from start to finish, but because of the exceptional artistry and personal commitment of the Humphreys family. With over 35 years of experience in the art world, the gallery has become a testament to preserving artistic traditions and values. Their art includes handmade, closed corner frames, that can be customized to look exactly how you want in your home.

“We offer art for everyone, whether you are a seasoned collector or just beginning. Our collection is tailored to meet your needs and fit your desired price. Explore stunning landscapes that capture the beauty of our region, breathtaking wildlife, vibrant florals, and life-like Bronze Sculptures. The art we offer is professional quality that will hold its value.”

Family remains the core of this operation—Travis, alongside his sons, design and build the frames, while his daughter manages the gallery. His wife Kathryn is the heart and has made everything possible.

Being Family-Owned sets Gold River Gallery apart because they have a greater level of personal commitment to their clients. “We carry a deep sense of pride in everything we do and are passionate about preserving artistic traditions. We are connected in the world of art and will help you find exactly what you are looking for. We also offer advice when it comes to collecting, appraising and conserving your art.”

The team at Gold River Gallery look forward to connecting with you through engaging events/classes, evolving exhibits, and showcasing skilled local artists. To learn more about the gallery, make sure to check out their website at GoldRiverGallery.com and follow their social media @goldrivergallery.

Gold River Gallery, reminding us of the beauty that emerges when tradition, passion, and family come together to create something extraordinary.

Art is an investment that is beneficial in many ways. In our homes it can be a story or special piece of history we carry with us and pass down to our children. For businesses art can be a write off and decoration. Art encourages creativity, boosts morale, and elevates our environments. In our community art stimulates commerce, creates jobs, improves our family life by reducing stress, boosting creativity, along with making our neighborhoods places of what might be possible into the future.

As I sit down to write my final Editor’s Letter, I find myself reflecting on the journey that began back in March 2020 — just days before the world shut down. Taking on this challenge with The Independent during one of the most unpredictable times in modern history taught me more than I could have ever imagined, and it has provided me with an opportunity to discover

Over these past five years, I’ve had the privilege of working with a team that exemplifies what collaboration and resilience truly mean. In a world where uncertainty seemed to dominate, our small but mighty crew continues to find ways to keep things moving — consistently, creatively, and with a spirit of support that made even the hardest deadlines feel lighter. I am endlessly grateful for the trust and camaraderie we built together. But don’t fret, you may just see a few things from me from time to time. I’m not done writing, that journey is just beginning.

Serving as editor during such a transformational time has also been a personal journey of growth. I’ve sharpened and found my voice as a writer, strengthened my instincts as a storyteller, and found new depth as a thought leader — all thanks to the countless conversations, projects, and partnerships I’ve had with incredible community leaders and promoters who all make Southern Utah such a vibrant place to call home.

This chapter may be coming to a close, but my appreciation for The Independent, its mission, and the community it serves will always remain. Thank you to everyone — colleagues, contributors, readers, and friends — who made this experience unforgettable.

Here’s to new beginnings and lasting connections.

BUMBLEBERRY THEATER TURNS UP THE HEAT WITH LIVE MUSIC

June - Springdale
Springdale’s Bumbleberry Theater is doubling down on live music in June, serving up back-to-back Saturday concerts that span American roots, blues and classic rock. Note: the two shows recently swapped dates, so mark your calendars with the current schedule below and save the dates.

The Mighty Steelheads | June 14, 7 PM

Led by LaVerkin native and pedal-steel ace Vern Monnett, the Steelheads reel in decades of road-tested chops. Monnett spent twelve years touring the globe with Tex-Mex legend Freddy Fender, cutting two albums and even squeezing in an on-screen cameo in The Beverly Hillbillies reboot. He’s joined by Las Vegas showman Luke Randall—an America’s Got Talent alum and house guitarist for a Billy Joel tribute—plus keyboard wizard John Houston, bassist Joe Costello, studio ace Dutch Workman on drums, and guitarist/vocalist Rick Houston. Expect rock standards, country licks and plenty of six-string fireworks.

Dick Earl’s Electric Witness | June 21, 7 PM

Fresh off a third-place finish at the 2023 International Blues Challenge in Memphis—no small feat against 140 bands from around the globe—Electric Witness hits Springdale with soul-deep vocals, gritty guitar and harmonica straight “from the depths of a true bluesman’s soul” (KTIM Radio). Front-man Dick Earl Erickson is a Las Vegas Blues Society fixture whose career includes pit work at Tuacahn Amphitheatre and a star turn in the award-winning documentary Into the Fire (Doc Utah 2022; Best Feature, Zepstone Film Festival 2023).

The Bumbleberry Theater Experience

Bumbleberry Theater’s 200-seat room pairs state-of-the-art sound with postcard views of Zion’s red cliffs, giving locals and park-goers alike a rare, intimate concert setting just steps from the national park entrance.

Tickets start at $15 and tend to disappear fast—grab yours online at Bumbleberry.com (click “Theater”) or, if any remain, at the door (897 Zion Park Blvd., Springdale). Bring a friend, snag a slice of Bumbleberry pie, and let the canyon echo. See you under the lights!

CAMP, CUDDLE, AND SAVE THEM ALL: YOUR BEST FRIENDS GETAWAY STARTS HERE

Kanab
Best Friends Animal Sanctuary in Kanab is home to about 1,600 dogs, cats, pigs, goats, horses, bunnies, birds, and wildlife on any given day, making it the nation’s largest no-kill refuge. Free tours introduce visitors to Dogtown, Cat World, Horse Haven, Piggy Paradise, and more, while volunteer shifts let guests dive straight into the lifesaving action—walking energetic hounds, brushing burros, or stroller-training curious kittens. Families hoping to fall in love can meet adoptable pets daily at the Welcome Center, Sinjin’s in Cat World, and the Adoption Hub, where Sanctuary adoption fees are currently waived. Those extra-smitten may even invite a furry friend on an overnight sleepover in approved lodging for the ultimate test drive.

The visitor fun kicks up even higher from May through October when the pet-centric Best Friends Roadhouse & Mercantile hosts free lawn concerts every Saturday evening and a complimentary 9 AM yoga class that greets the red-rock sunrise. After a good stretch, everyone is welcome at Angel Village Café for a $5 all-vegan buffet lunch—salad bar, hot entrées, desserts, and canyon panorama included. It’s the same million-dollar view that helped Best Friends snag 2024 Best of State medals for Best Attraction, Best Recreation/

Activity Facility, and Best Health Foods. Once the day’s cuddles and canyon panoramas wind down, visitors have two on-site ways to bed down. The Roadhouse, ten minutes from the Sanctuary, welcomes up to four personal pets per room (or a sleepover guest from the Sanctuary) at no extra charge. A complimentary vegan continental breakfast, two passes to Angel Village lunch, downtown Kanab convenience, and the live-music vibes make it an easy choice for many travelers.

Back inside Angel Canyon, last year’s 18-site RV and camping loop has become a fast favorite. Each site offers full hookups, Wi-Fi, and 35-foot concrete pads perched above horse pastures and serenaded by coyote song at dusk. Nearby cottages and cabins round out the stay-your-way lineup, all with easy access to hiking trails, hidden lakes, and the dark-sky stargazing southern Utah is famous for.

Whether you pitch a tent, park the rig, or pull up a chair for sunset guitar riffs, every visit to Best Friends turns relaxation into a chance to Save Them All. Plan tours, volunteer shifts, or adoptions at bestfriends.org, and book Roadhouse rooms at bestfriendsroadhouse.org or call 435-644-3400.

COMEDY REIGNS SUPREME MAY 31ST AND IT'S ALL ABOUT BALD NATE

So U Comedy Presents!

The cast of So U Comedy is back in full swing with three performance dates in May, featuring a SPECIAL SHOW all about Bald Nate! (Yes, that is how he is affectionately known.) Now is your chance to see the cast in action with an evening full of laughs with fast-paced, short-form improv. Each So U show is unique as it draws suggestions from the audience to create each scene, delivering endless silly scenarios.

So U began nearly a decade ago, and has been steadily growing an audience, not just through performing, but by community engagement. With the belief that "Improv Is For Everyone," the troupe holds regular practices at the St. George Rec Center on Monday evenings at 7 PM.

Community members of all ages and skill levels are invited to learn the basic skills of improv and play in front of their improv peers.

"We really enjoy seeing new faces that have a desire to learn and just be a part of an improv community. Many of our current cast come from different improv backgrounds from all over the country, and we are lucky that they are now a part of ours!" said Ginger Nelson, a current cast member. Nelson noted that an integral part of So U's purpose is to build an improv community in St. George. "We are happy to have had positive connections and opportunities to play with other troupes in the past - Comedy Sportz in Provo, and our friends at OTC Comedy in Cedar City. The more we all work together, the more people experience the fun of improv."

The open invitation to community practice is not just for learning a few skills; many current players of So U began attending practices and eventually auditioned for the troupe. Anyone interested in becoming a performer with So U is encouraged to attend. Auditions to join So U are a few months away. If you are curious about learning improv, want to eventually join the cast, or just want to try something new, check out a performance this month and attend community practice.

On May 3rd and 17th, you can see our cast deliver laughs for the whole family! Performances on the 31st are in honor of America's Improv Sweetheart, Bald Nate. Join our audience that evening to celebrate his astounding beauty, unmatched improv prowess, and don't forget to wear your best suit jacket!

Every other Saturday, you can see So U Improv back-to-back for a family-friendly show at 7 PM, followed by the highly attended Uncensored show at 9 PM. All performances are at the Electric Theater in Upper Room 2. Tickets can be purchased

FROM PRUNING TO POURING: SPRING BOTTLING SEASON BLOOMS AT ZION VINEYARDS

By Patrick Hayes

Zion Vineyards in May is a time for bottling, weeding, planting, irrigation and growth. The trimming and pruning we did in February and March have benefits visible now. It has promoted new growth that encourages high-quality fruit and ensures the new growth has enough air flow and sun. We planted red clover, a nitrogen producing plant, around the bases of many of our vines this year, to increase our yield. We are seeing small clusters of grapes on the vine already. A good indication of healthy vines.

We've bottled 6 New Reserve wines two of which are available to taste and purchase now, the Sangiovese Reserve and the Teroldego Reserve American Oak. Sangiovese, from the Latin Sanguis Jovis, "blood of Jupiter". It is one of the most important grape varieties in Italy. Known as the "backbone of Chianti". Sangiovese is the dominant grape variety in Chianti blends. Our 2023 Sangiovese Reserve is aged in French Oak it is medium-bodied, rich and dry with a bright acidity. Fruit driven in character with aromas of tart cherry and plum, red currants and blackberries. With grippy tannins and savory notes of saddle-leather, tobacco, sage and roasted pepper. A perfect food wine paired with rich full-flavored meats, Osso Bucco, Lasagna, Chicken Cacciatore and Classic Red sauce pasta dishes, cured sausages and hard cheeses.

The Teroldego Reserve American Oak, this wine aged in American Oak is full-bodied, and well-balanced, with bold notes of vanilla and cherry, blackberry and currants. Big Oak and smoke with notes of tobacco and woody spice complement a smooth rounded mouthfeel and velvety tannins. This wine has bright fruit notes, like cranberry and pomegranate, blended in with blackberry and raspberry. Expect spicy pepper, a hint of cinnamon or anise, and black earthiness in there as well. A perfect food wine paired with duck, beef steaks, lamb or braised meats like Osso Bucco and Classic Tomato based Italian dishes. "What Wine Pairs with BACON? You Guessed it, our Teroldego.

Please come on out and join us for a fun time and taste some of our award-winning wines. Visit us at 5 Hidden Valley Road in Leeds. We are just 12 miles north of St George and just off the I-15 in beautiful Leeds Utah. Reservations are not needed We are Open Seven Days a Week, noon to 6 PM. Online at zionvines.com or call 435-216-1340.

KANE COUNTY'S TRAIL BOOM ROLLS INTO THE THRILLS & SKILLS BIKE FESTIVAL

Online registration opens May 15, 2025
In just four years Kane County, Utah, has erupted from a lone trail system to five purpose-built playgrounds and more than 100 miles of fresh single-track—most so new even Google Maps hasn't caught up.

Tilted Mesa spans three sandstone mesas south of town, packing 16 miles of stacked-loop single-track. Slickrock ribbons, rock gardens, drops, and sweeping vistas paint each ride in red-rock sherbet hues.

Just east of Zion, Applecross climbs between 6,000-6,800 ft. Its three phases now exceed 40 miles of machine-sculpted flow: wood features, high berms, rollers, jumps, and one-way downhill loops that peek into the park's cliffs through piñon and brush.

The county's elder statesman is the 11-mile Navajo Lake Loop near Duck Creek. Poplars, pines, and pockets of malpais make this high-altitude route a scenic, intermediate classic. At the far eastern edge, the Bureau of Land Management's 6.5-mile Stud Horse Network (built 2023) is set to open to mountain bikes and Class 1 e-bikes this spring. Expect moderate tech, twisting hoodoo corridors, and knockout views of Lake Powell and Skylight Arch. Finally, crews are carving the Cottonwood Ranch Trails into a private spread beneath Kanab's vermilion cliffs. More than 36 miles of flow and natural tech are planned, promising something for every rider. To celebrate—and to pin these trails on the digital map—local cyclists have launched the Thrills & Skills Bike Festival, October 24-26, 2025, at the Kanab Convention Center. Guided rides on three of the five systems will be grouped by ability, while daily gravel and e-bike outings offer laid-back mileage and canyon views. Festival-goers can sharpen their chops in pro-led clinics covering hill climbs and descents, body position, cornering, new-rider basics, on-trail repairs, and more. Off the dirt, explore next-gen bikes, outdoor gear, and apparel; sample demo rides; chill in the beer garden; catch live bands; graze food trucks; and jump into friendly contests. Online registration opens May 15, 2025, at ThrillsAndSkills.com; vendor sign-ups are already live. Roll into Kanab this fall and help put Utah's freshest single-track on every rider's radar.

A Spellbinding Summer Production at The Historic Electric Theater!

This summer, The Stage Door invites audiences on a journey Into the Woods with its enchanting production of the beloved musical by Stephen Sondheim (music and lyrics) and James Lapine (book), running June 19 through July 12 at The Electric Theater, a beautifully restored historic venue located in downtown St. George at 68 E. Tabernacle Street.

Scott. "Every element—from music to movement to magic—comes together to create something truly special."

The musical cleverly combines the quests of familiar fairy tale characters into one sweeping narrative, beginning with a series of wishes—a child, riches, beauty, and adventure—that set them all into motion. As their paths cross, each must navigate unexpected trials that challenge their desires, values, and relationships. It's a deeply hu-

Audiences will be captivated by a stellar cast including Mimi Knell as the mysterious Witch, Eric Humphries as the kind-hearted Baker, Ashlie Davenport as his resourceful wife, Jackson Betts as the adventurous Jack, Amanda Butler as the fiery Little Red Ridinghood, Mattea Denney as a graceful Cinderella, and Tim Merkley as her charming yet complex Prince. They are joined by many other talented community members to make this a truly unforgettable ensemble.

Behind the scenes, Stage Manager Kristen McPhie keeps the production running smoothly, while scenic designer and The Stage Door Artistic Director Josh Scott brings the enchanted forest to life with a whimsical and immersive set.

Into the Woods is a funny, heartfelt, and thought-provoking musical that explores the complexity of wishes, family, and the choices that define us—all set to Sondheim's masterful score and Lapine's imaginative, emotionally rich storytelling.

PANGUITCH VALLEY BALLOON RALLY SPLASHES COLORS ACROSS GARFIELD COUNTY SKIES

June 27–29, 2025 - Panguitch

Utah's favorite high-desert lift-off returns the last weekend of June when roughly three-dozen hot-air balloons rise over historic Panguitch at 6:30 AM each day. The free, family-friendly Panguitch Valley Balloon Rally anchors Main and Center Streets with morning mass ascensions, evening music, and a Saturday-night glow that turns downtown into a living lantern.

curbside and pulse their burners in rhythm with Center & Main, Spilbeedog, and Most Wanted.

Saturday adds extra lift: runners' line up for the PHX 5K at 7 AM outside Panguitch High (390 E. 100 S.), bingo shuffles cards at Social Hall 1–3 PM, and chrome takes a victory lap when the Biker Parade rumbles down Main at 6:30 PM before the glow ignites at 7:30. Sunday's final ascension offers one last sunrise spec-

From dawn till dark on Friday and Saturday, Main Street bustles with food trucks, craft stalls, inflatables, and small-town charm. Live bands kick in Friday 6:30–10 PM, then return for Saturday's glow, when pilots tether their balloons tackle before vendors roll up the sidewalks.

Why it matters: the rally funnels thousands of visitors onto Panguitch's red-brick main drag, bolstering mom-and-pop eateries and outfitting stores while showcasing Bryce Canyon Country's big-sky beauty.

Locals swear the coolest seat in town is a lawn chair before breakfast—coffee in one hand, camera in the other—as balloons drift over the valley and Bryce's pink cliffs catch first light.

Want in? Show up early, dress in layers, and bring cash for street eats and souvenirs. The festival itself is free; 5K registration happens race morning. Full schedule and lodging tips are at panguitch.com or call 435-676-8585.

SUMMER SOUNDS RETURN TO THE ROADHOUSE

Best Friends Roadhouse fires up its 4th-annual concert series in Kanab.

From classic country pickin' to high-energy blues, Saturday nights in Kanab are about to get a whole lot livelier. Best Friends Roadhouse & Mercantile launches its fourth-annual free summer concert series on May 3, transforming the pet-centric hotel's landscaped lawn at 30 N. 300 W. into the town's favorite open-air venue. Shows run every Saturday through the last weekend in October: May and June sets play 6-8 PM, July and August slide to a sunset-friendly 7-9 PM, then September and October return to the 6-8 PM groove. Each week features a different regional artist—from returning favorites like River House Band and Ryan Tracey to newcomers sure to become staples—so there's always a fresh reason to toss a blanket on the grass and tap your toes.

Kicking things off, May's lineup brings River House Band on May 3, Richard Jewkes on May 10, Ryan Tracey on May 17, Stone Company on May 24 and Tom Bennet on May 31, followed by Eric Sims strumming into June on the 7th.

Director of Visitor Experience Julie Barger sums up the vibe: "We are so excited to kick off our summer music series at the Roadhouse. This always signifies the start of a busy tourism season and a great chance for locals, hotel guests and Kanab visitors to gather together and hear some great tunes, enjoy our beautiful landscaping, play lawn games, purchase Mercantile snacks and beverages or bring a picnic. The music is great, but we're there for the cute dogs people bring to the concerts too!"

The Roadhouse isn't just about Saturday sounds. On the last Tuesday of every month a 4 PM Memorial Rock-Painting class invites guests to create keepsakes, while the second Thursday's 7-8 PM Kitten Bingo delivers prizes, purrs and plenty of feline photo ops. Early risers can find their Zen every Saturday at 9 AM yoga, stretching beneath the red-rock skyline before the evening's guitar riffs take over.

Admission is free, seating is in open space and parking is plentiful. For lodging, directions or a full calendar, visit bestfriendsroadhouse.org or call 435-644-3400. Pack a chair, leash up the pooch and let the Roadhouse soundtrack your southern Utah summer—now clear through the golden days of October.

We are in town for the 4th of July and my son fractured his wrist at the local skate park. BRANDON VESTAL'S DRY-BAR WIT LIGHT UP THE ELECTRIC THEATER

June 7, 2025 - St. George, UT.

St. George is in for a 90-minute laugh-quake when Dry Bar Comedy star Brandon Vestal brings his sly, slow-burn punchlines to The Electric Theater on Saturday, June 7 at 7 PM. Presented by Electric Comedy, the 7 to 8:30 PM set marks Vestal's first Southern Utah stop since clips from his special Brandon Vestal: Who? racked up more than 12 million online views and catapulted the Oklahoma native onto SiriusXM's Comedian of the Month list for his debut album Smoooth on 800 Pound Gorilla Records.

Vestal's low-key, observational style—equal parts Midwestern good-guy and razor-sharp realist—has earned him festival trophies from Laughing Skull to Big Sky and a brand-new viral album, Positively Pessimistic, released last summer. Expect PG-13 reflections on family, fast food, and the weird little ways life lets us down—before he spins them into comedy gold.

Electric Comedy is a St. George-based stand-up production company founded by Los Angeles comic and filmmaker Val Douroux to "build a better world through laughter." Since launching in 2019, the company has booked Dry Bar and 800 Pound Gorilla headliners, staged sold-out monthly showcases at the 300-seat Electric Theater, and even popped up at Sundance and Los Angeles clubs.

The Electric Theater's brick-and-beam acoustics amplify every chuckle, making it a beloved home base for Electric Comedy's touring series. Doors open at 6 PM; arrive early to snag concessions and prime seats.

Tickets are available at ElectricComedyNight.com, with group and celebration rates via electriccomedynight@gmail.com. If recent tour stops are any guide, the show will sell out quicker than Vestal can under-react to catastrophe—so save the date, rally your laugh-loving crew, and get ready for a comedic masterclass right on Tabernacle Street.

TWO TOWNS, ONE BIG SOUND - DC PUB & GRILL'S SUMMER LINE-UP

DC Pub & Grill has quickly become a Southern Utah favorite for food, drinks, and a solid live-music vibe. Owners Azure Dodson and Ashley Pyne took over what was already the deli in Duck Creek in 2022 and gave it new life—transforming it into a family-friendly pub with a liquor license in 2023. By 2024, they'd expanded to Cedar City. "We love showcasing local and regional artists at two amazing locations," Dodson says—and they've packed both venues with live music every weekend this season.

In Cedar City, things kick off May 10 with St. George favorites The Mixx, a six-piece outfit that mixes crowd-pleasing Top-40 and classic rock into an irresistible dance-party blend. Runaway Fire brings soaring vocals and guitar-driven original rock on May 16. The Paddle Out Band joins the Cedar schedule on May 17 with their unique blend of dream-pop, reggae, and indie rock. Then on May 24, nationally touring outlaw one-man band Tom Bennett takes the stage, stomping a kick-drum suitcase while spinning gritty country-blues storytelling.

Over in Duck Creek, the live sets run from 3 to 6 PM starting Memorial Day weekend with Las Vegas troubadour Mike Dean playing both May 24 and 25. He delivers soulful country covers and heartfelt originals with rootsy flair. Kimmee B fires things up on May 31 with Texas-style country-rock energy. Tom Bennett returns June 7, The Mixx heads up the mountain on June 28, and The Paddle Out Band wraps the Independence Day weekend July 5 with mellow mountain vibes.

DC Pub & Grill is more than just the music, though. The menu draws fans too—with signature mountain phillys, classic Rueben sandwiches, and a lineup of hearty burgers all served alongside 20 beers on tap. There's never a cover charge, and both spots are open until 11 PM, giving folks time to enjoy post-show drinks, shoot some pool, or just soak in the mountain air around a fire pit.

For details, menus, and upcoming music schedules, visit dcpubandgrill.com or call 435-708-0432. Whether you're craving a cold beer and a mountain philly or chasing some fresh local music, DC Pub & Grill has your weekend plans ready.

TRANQUILITY, AWAY FROM CROWDS AT HAPPENSTANCE ANTIQUES & ART

Fredonia, Arizona.
Finding moments of leisure coupled with the prospect of discovery. Happenstance originated from and continues to endure a post-retirement curiosity involving antiques and vintage pieces coupled with an interest in art by a lifetime non-artist. A droll pastime expanded into researching the beauty and appeal of exceptional pieces, both from a historical perspective and continued contemporaneous use.

As the interest in antiques and art stirred aside the potential boredom factors of complete retirement, I discovered a unique personal compulsion..." I thoroughly enjoyed finding unique pieces!" Thus, my wife, Terry and I (Dan) have opened antique shops during the past twenty plus years to support this 'search for unique and wonder' by offering these items to shopping guests. Following successful shops in Yarnell AZ and Dillon MT, we opened Happenstance Antiques & Art in Fredonia AZ, a town in Northern Arizona which borders with Kanab UT. We enjoy this area with its historical townships, national parks and outdoor geographical attractions, spending the past years from 2019 to April 2025 season opening sharing our variety of wares with guests that have enjoyed, in their words, 'a pleasurable and mixed shopping experience without pressure or prod' among historical furniture pieces, glassware and pottery from early English pubs and American households, sculptures from Europe and the US, tools from your grandfather's and father's eras, kitchen implements from your grandmother's and mother's times, old and contemporary books to include 1st editions (if not sold), unusual books from the 1930's and comic books from the 1950's plus more current editions, artwork both original and print presenting a variety of styles to include western, portrait, landscape, animal and historical subjects (some known artists and undiscovered artists) blended together with more contemporary collectibles currently being sought i.e. older cameras, typewriters and uranium glassware, also mentioning here saddles both usable and wall hanger and jewelry both inexpensive and expensive.

Your stroll through enticement and history alongside offered antique and present-day pieces. Located in Fredonia AZ at 55 N. Main Street (Hwy 89A) between City Hall and Post Office. Open for the April-September season Thursday, Friday, Saturday, & Monday (open Sunday for Memorial, 4th of July and Labor week-ends). Note: will not be open one weekend a month, generally the third weekend of month, however available (if in town and not away searching for resupply pieces) Call (406) 925-9824 for an in-shop appointment.

THE INDEPENDENT MOVIE REVIEW

By Adam Mast

MOVIE REVIEW: "SINNERS" (R)
★★★★ ½

"Sinners" is so much more than the vampire film it's being marketed as!

Right out of the gate, let it be known that "Sinners" is quite the bold swing for the fences because, despite what the marketing is probably leading most folks to believe, it isn't really a vampire film. Well, that's not entirely true. It is partly a vampire film but there's certainly a lot more going on here. To say that it takes certain risks would be a gross understatement. It should also be noted that this latest effort from writer/director Ryan Coogler ("Fruitvale Station," "Creed," "Wakanda Forever") demands to be experienced on the biggest screen with the very best sound possible because it's truly an all-immersive experience.

Sinners" opens in the deep south, circa the early 1930s, and introduces us to charismatic twin brothers Smoke and Stack (both played by Michael B. Jordan with the help of strong direction, stellar acting chops, and a little movie magic), as they return to their hometown with aspirations of opening a Juke Joint. Before they can pull it off, though, they'll need to round up the right team to put this epic venture together and this will ultimately bring them face to face with old friends, family members, lovers of the past, tragic memories, and of course, most unexpected foes. Foes that will ultimately challenge them over the course of one hell of a night.

Where to start? "Sinners" is simply alive. There's almost no other way to describe it. It's like ten films rolled into one but it never feels convoluted or overstuffed because Coogler and crew handle the proceedings in such a seemingly effortless way. Additionally, this is a movie that wears its many wonderful influences proudly on its sleeve, something that Coogler has been very vocal about. In fact, some viewers may even find things in there that others won't.

Two films I certainly felt echoes of were the Robert Rodriguez/Quentin Tarantino vampire romp "From Dusk Till Dawn" and Walter Hill's underappreciated ode-to-the-blues road movie "Crossroads" (not to be confused with the Brittany Spears-headlined film from the early 2000s.) What's special here, though, is that "Sinners" never feels like a ripoff of any kind. On the contrary, it feels like the work of a visionary with a pure love for cinema.

In terms of performances, Coogler has put together a stellar ensemble headlined by the likes of Jordan (who manages to sell the twins by giving Smoke and Stack very distinct character traits) and newcomer Miles Caton who literally hits all the right notes as an up-and-coming bluesman named Sammie Moore. The exceptional roster of supporting players also includes the likes of Hailee Steinfeld (you've never seen her like this before), Delroy Lindo (a joy as always), Jack O'Connell (an underappreciated actor who shines yet again), Omar Benson Miller (immensely entertaining), and Wunmi Mosaku (mysterious, passionate, and enchanting) just to name a precious few.

"Sinners" is dramatic, thrilling, funny, violent, bloody, sexy, adult, and bleak, but in its own way, it's also poignant and even hopeful. This is to say nothing of the fact that it's positively oozing in authenticity, and in the end, it's all the stronger for being all of these things. "Sinners" brings so many ideas to the table. It'll leave viewers plenty to chew on. There are themes of racism, culture, oppression, appropriation, legacy, and yes, even vampirism to be sure but Coogler and team display these ideas in rich and exciting ways that are sometimes surprisingly subtle and open to various forms of interpretation. And to top it all off, "Sinners" is also a musical of sorts. At the very least, it's a celebration of music. And a breathless one at that.

Beyond that, the fashion in which "Sinners" goes about delving into the nature of art itself and how our life experiences inform that art is certainly not something I was prepared for. Look no further than a pivotal scene that happens during the end of the film. No spoilers here, only to say; DON'T leave when the end credits begin to roll because the particular scene to which I'm referring is not the kind of sting we're all now accustomed to seeing at the end of a Marvel movie. With all due respect to superhero films (yes, for the most part, I'm a fan), this is something far more thoughtful and profound.

Congrats to Coogler and his entire creative team, DP Autumn Durald Arkapaw and composer Ludwig Göransson among them. The stunning craftsmanship and world building in general go without saying but further props to this terrific storyteller for never sacrificing character in the name of a boring explosion or a pointless kill. This guy is a special talent to be sure and while I absolutely LOVED "Creed," this might be his strongest work to date.

3 PLACES TO FISH FOR BASS IN SOUTHERN UTAH

With warmer temperatures in the air, many anglers may be planning their next spring or summer fishing trips. If you want to target largemouth or smallmouth bass, Utah has three stunning locations that not only offer great fishing, but that also need more bass harvest.

Gunlock and Sand Hollow reservoirs are both state parks in Washington County that offer largemouth bass fishing. Lake Powell is primarily located in Garfield, Kane and San Juan counties in southern Utah, with a small portion in Coconino County in northern Arizona. Lake Powell lies within the Glen Canyon National Recreation Area and offers fishing for both largemouth and smallmouth bass.

"We would like to see an increased harvest of bass at Sand Hollow, Gunlock and Lake Powell," Utah Division of Wildlife Resources Southern Region Warmwater Biologist Jonathan Hudson said. "Increasing harvest at Sand Hollow will help improve the size, age structure and condition of the bass there. Recent fishery surveys showed evidence of a stunted largemouth population — with few larger than 20 inches — and angler groups have voiced support for trying to improve fish growth and condition at these waterbodies. But arguably the best reason for harvesting bass is how delicious they are! Bass have a light, mild-tasting meat that takes on flavors well and doesn't have a strong 'fishy' taste."

If you want to take home some of these tasty fish, here is some information to help you target them in Utah:

Time of year- Largemouth bass can be caught throughout most of the year, but fishing success really improves when the water temperatures warm up. Largemouth bass are a warmwater fish species, and they start to move into shallower habitats to spawn as the water warms in the spring. In the northern part of the state, bass spawning typically occurs in late May or early June. In the southern part of the state, spawning typically takes place in mid-April.

Smallmouth bass are considered a cool-water fish — preferring slightly cooler temperatures than largemouth bass — and they are more difficult to catch through the ice. They tend to spawn later than largemouth bass.

In general, April through June and September through October are the more productive fishing seasons for both smallmouth and largemouth bass in Utah.

Equipment- Both of these species will aggressively respond to plastic lures, which are typically inexpensive. If the water is really clear, focus on using more natural-colored lures, like browns and blacks, with colorful flecks that will get the fish's attention. If the water is more turbid, then brightly colored lures can be a good option. (This also applies if you are fishing deep later in the summer where the light doesn't penetrate as far). There are many other lures you can use successfully, however, including crank baits, buzz baits and spinner baits, depending on the time of year.

Techniques - The most successful fishing techniques will depend on the time of year when you are targeting bass and also on which species of bass you are targeting. Largemouth bass typically prefer vegetative cover, and smallmouth bass really like rocky habitat.

"Typically, techniques for one species will work for the other, but imitating small crayfish in rocky habitat will help you better target smallmouth, while using bigger, moving baits near brushy areas will draw more largemouth," Hudson said. If you are bass fishing in early spring (between mid-March and mid-April), you can typically find the bass in 20-30 feet of water, so a boat can be helpful. Once you locate a school of fish, cast swimbaits and drop-shot rigs and work them slowly.

As water temperatures warm to the mid-50s, you can find bass in 10-15 feet of water near spawning areas, and they typically react to jigs, spinnerbaits and swimbaits.

When water temperatures hit the 60s, you can often see bass in shallow water, actively fanning and guarding their nests during spawning season. They will react aggressively to any baits that come near their nests, including topwaters and jigs. After spawning ends — typically in mid-May — the bass will return to 10-15 feet of water. Fishing early and late in the day, with moving lures like cranks and swimbaits, can be effective at this point, as the bass are typically feeding on sunfish and crayfish.

During the hot summer months, bass will move into deeper water near contours and other structures. Anglers will find the most success targeting them early or late in the day when it's cooler, and they may be a little shallower. While boats make bass fishing easier, shore anglers can also have good success targeting them during the spring and fall when the fish are in shallower water.

"Bass are a really popular sportfish around the country and even around the world — and it is no different here in Utah, because who doesn't love the thrill of fighting a bass on the end of your line?" DWR Sportfish Coordinator Trina Hedrick said. "They are also typically a low-maintenance fish for us because we only need to stock bass for a few years in a waterbody before they take off on their own and start naturally reproducing. Because of this, bass are an efficient species for us and free up more of our fish hatchery space. The greater issue for us is getting enough harvest. Anglers who keep the bass they catch are actually helping the overall population. Without harvest, there will be an abundance of smaller fish competing against each other for a limited supply of food. If anglers are concerned about overharvesting at a bass fishery, they can contact their local DWR office for more information."

While Gunlock and Sand Hollow reservoirs and Lake Powell are great places to fish for bass in Utah, you can find other waterbodies that also offer bass fishing by visiting the Fish Utah map on the DWR website.

Safety Tips For Zion

Emergencies

For 24-hour emergency response, call 911 or (435) 772-3322. The Zion Canyon Medical Clinic is located in Springdale near the south entrance to the park. For hours, please call (435) 772-3226. Other medical clinics are located in Hurricane. The nearest hospitals are in St. George, Cedar City, and Kanab.

Hydrate and use refillable water bottles

It is easy to get dehydrated while hiking and walking in the desert, so pack along extra water, and be sure to take rest and water breaks on long hikes. There are a number of places to refill your water bottles in Zion National Park including the visitors' center and Zion Lodge as well as a new hydration station at the Springdale bus stop in front of The Bumbleberry Inn and Zion Canyon Brew Pub.

Be cautious near steep cliffs

Falls from cliffs on trails can result in death. Loose sand or pebbles on stone are very slippery. Be careful of edges when using cameras or binoculars. Never throw or roll rocks because there may be hikers below you. Stay on the trail. Stay back from cliff edges. Observe posted warnings. Please watch children.

Watch for flash floods

All narrow canyons are potentially hazardous. Flash floods, often caused by storms miles away, are a real danger and can be life threatening. You are assuming a risk when entering a narrow canyon. Your safety is your responsibility.

Tips To Minimize Your Impact

Pack it in, pack it out & use recycling bins

Each month, Zion National Park pays many thousands of dollars to haul away waste collected from garbage cans and recycling bins. Your experience and that of everyone who visits Zion Canyon can be improved by never littering and making sure you pick up any trash you see along the way. Recycling bins are placed strategically throughout Zion Park, and it is highly encouraged for everyone to use them.

Please stay on the marked trails

Hiking off trails can lead to loss of vegetation, soil compaction, erosion, and unsightly scars on the landscape. Remember, if you bring it in, please pack it out.

Go before you go

It is always a good idea to use the restroom before you begin a hike since facilities are limited to select locations. If you do need to take care of your business, please pack it back out.

Be respectful to the wildlife

Feeding, harming, or capturing wild animals is illegal and can cause injury or death to the animal. Animals can become aggressive beggars when fed.

Please leave it how you found it

It is illegal to remove anything from Zion National Park, including flowers, rocks, or anything else that you might find. Do not write or carve on natural surfaces.

Top Things To Do In Zion

Get some great hiking in

Zion National Park is known for its scenic landscape and unrivaled hikes. No matter your fitness level, there are hikes here for you. Please go to ZionGuide.com to see the details on many area hikes.

Spend a day in Springdale

Springdale is unique to our national park system in that it is almost completely surrounded by Zion National Park. So when you're in Springdale, you're right in the middle of Zion Canyon.

Catch an event

Not only does Zion Brew Pub have live music every Saturday, the property also hosts a handful of events throughout the year, as do the Bit and Spur restaurant, Tanner Amphitheater, Bumbleberry Inn, Wildcat Willies, and several other locations.

Try a guided tour

Jeep, helicopter, ATV, canyoneering, horseback riding, or mountain biking, guided tours are all available. Many of these tours take you outside Zion National Park boundaries and give you a unique perspective on Zion's canyons and plateaus from surrounding areas of southern Utah. Check out ZionGuide.com for listings and ads.

Visit the east side of Zion and spend a day in Kanab

The east side of Zion is generally less crowded, making hikes more accessible and private. These are some of the most enjoyable hikes in the canyon. You can spot wildlife you won't see elsewhere in the canyon. The city of Kanab, situated east of the canyon, is full of unique attractions, like the Little Hollywood Movie Museum and the Best Friends Animal Sanctuary.

Take lots of pictures, leave only footprints

Be sure you've got extra charged batteries, smartphone cables, and memory cards so you can capture all the magic of Zion National Park. Additionally, there are numerous photo tour and guiding companies to assist you. Thank you for visiting the Zion National Park area.

Tips To Maximize Enjoyment

Go on a less crowded hike

The most visited Zion hikes have a lot of competition. If you'd rather not feel like you're in the line at a theme park, consider seeking out a less traveled path. Check out our feature, Less-Traveled Zion Hikes, in this issue.

To avoid the crowds, go early or late in the day

Consider getting up extra early or trekking out midday after the initial rush has flooded in.

Consider coming back again in the low season

Starting in the late fall, the number of visitors to Zion Canyon starts to dwindle, and by December it's significantly less than in the heat of the summer. It is simply a different experience to see Zion in the winter with the snow-capped monoliths. Most hikes are still accessible and are less crowded. You can also drive to the Temple of Sinawava parking lot. The shuttles stop running from November until March.

Check out Kolob Canyons & Kolob Terrace Road

With gorgeous open spaces and plenty of dirt roads to explore, Kolob Terrace Road is one of Zion's best kept secrets. You'll notice the air getting cooler as you gain elevation, and you'll find plenty of beautiful views worth stopping at for a quick photo op. The Kolob Terrace Road turnoff is in Virgin, so watch for signs. Portions of the Kolob Canyon District of Zion National Park are reached via Exit 40 on Interstate 15.

Zion National Park Hiking Info

THE LOCALS’ GUIDE TO HIKING PREPAREDNESS

National parks are seeing an uptick in helicopters carrying unfortunate hikers out of precarious situations.

In 2017, the National Park Service reported 324 search-and-rescue operations, which means 324 extremely unpleasant vacation experiences — nearly one a day. In 2014, the reported number was almost half that. The majority of those rescues occurred in Zion and Bryce Canyon National Parks, and most hikers who end up getting into trouble are either in their 20s or are older than 60.

Despite our highly skilled and dedicated rescue teams’ valiant efforts, not everyone made it out of their predicaments safely.

Twelve people lost their lives in Utah’s national parks in 2017 alone.

It’s hard to imagine one wanting a vacation amid the splendor of our national parks to involve search and rescue teams or a close encounter with death.

Zion National Park is often referred to as an outdoor Disneyland. But this is the wilderness, and it’s far less forgiving than any theme park. Here are some tips for how to safely enjoy your time in Zion Canyon.

Bring water

You lose more water through perspiration than you realize, and if you are used to a more moist climate — and nearly any climate is less arid than southern

Utah — you can become dehydrated quickly without realizing it.

The National Park Service recommends that hikers bring one gallon of water per hiker per day. There are fill stations throughout Springdale and the park that provided filtered water at no charge.

Natural water sources in the park such as creeks and streams are not reliable sources of clean drinking water. If you find yourself in a situation wherein you need water but have none, it is strongly advised that any locally-sourced water intended for consumption first be filtered, boiled for at least 10 minutes, or treated with iodine before consuming.

Wear appropriate clothing

While most paths and trails are well maintained, this is the great outdoors, and a little loose gravel or slickrock can lead to injury — or worse. Think of appropriate footwear as an insurance policy — and if you are a little nervous, a hiking stick never hurts. Also, dress lightly if it’s going to be hot, but be sure to use appropriate sun protection like sunscreen and large-brimmed hats, because suffering from sunstroke or severe sunburn during an already taxing hike can be brutal.

Leave wildlife alone

Animals instinctively avoid humans, but the area is home to everything from poisonous snakes to mountain lions. Never approach local wildlife — and never try to feed them. This can result in injury to visitors, and numerous visitors have required stitches after attempting to hand-feed animals. But when humans feed wildlife, it’s also not good for the animals, who are already best suited to feed themselves.

Hike sober

Sometimes relatively stationary outdoor activities like boating or camping involve enjoying an adult beverage or two. But when you’re hiking the varied terrain of our national parks, you don’t want your coordination, balance, or judgment to be impaired to any extent. Zion Canyon, Springdale, and Kanab are home to several fine restaurants and bars — but visit them for a cocktail after your hike, not before.

Hike at your skill level, and don’t take risks

Trails in Zion range from short and easy to long and challenging. Don’t overestimate your ability and endurance level. And don’t engage in horseplay or other activity that might endanger yourself or others. Some of Zion’s hikes are steep, and you wouldn’t be the first person to tumble down a hill — or worse, fall off a cliff. Zion is beautiful, but it’s also dangerous, so respect yourself and others by respecting the terrain.

Less-Traveled Zion Hikes

Current Trail Closures

Road to Lava Point and West Rim Trailhead closed - This is a regular, seasonal closure, and we will change when snow melts. Lava Point Overlook is also closed. Closed trail bridge at Zion Lodge (Shuttle Stop #5) - To access Emerald Pools, start your hike at the Court of the Patriarchs (Shuttle Stop #4) or the Grotto (Shuttle Stop #6). Toxic Cyanobacteria in the Virgin River and the streams of Zion National Park – Do not submerge your head in or filter drinking water from still or moving water.

Northgate Peaks

By Don Gilman

The Northgate Peaks trail in the Kolob Terrace section of Zion National Park is an amazing trail with spectacular views. The trail itself is nearly flat, making it a perfect hike for families.

To reach the Northgate Peaks trailhead, take State Route 9 to the town of Virgin. Turn left onto Kolob Terrace Road. Drive for 15.7 miles through increasingly spectacular country until the short spur road (on the right) for the Wildcat Trailhead is reached. Drive a few hundred feet to the large parking area.

The trail heads east across grassy plains and stands of Ponderosa Pine with dynamite views of the towering Pine Valley Peak to the west. Soon the trail will be fully in the forest with limited views. After 0.9 miles, the junction with the Hop Valley trail is reached. Continue east, and 0.1 miles further, the junction with the Northgate Peaks Trail is reached. Head south on this trail for another 1.1 miles until the end of the official trail is reached at a rocky basalt bluff with epic views of the Northgate Peaks to the east and west and of North Guardian Angel to the south.

For families with young children, this makes an excellent turnaround spot.

Gifford Canyon

By Bo Beck

Gifford Canyon offers a nice stroll through a sandy wash and is very charming when water is running. This hike is nearly 3 miles long and will take about 2 hours to finish.

To start this hike, park in the lot located immediately east of the Zion/Mt. Carmel Tunnel. The trail begins at the backside of the restrooms at the back of the parking lot. There will be a steep, sandy path to climb down before you enter Pine Creek slot. Follow the path upstream for almost 75 feet, and look for a 15-foot wall of slickrock. You can scramble up the rock or look for the beaten path on the backside of the rock.

On top of this wall is a narrow dirt path that is crowded by rock and vegetation. It winds around the mountain to a dead end with a beautiful view of the mountain where the Canyon Overlook Trail is located, opposite is Gifford Canyon.

The path will lead past stone bridge and to another minor slickrock climb. At the end of the canyon, there is a circle of cliffs preventing further exploration without climbing up the sandstone.

Chinle Trail

By Greta Hyland

Chinle Trail is an off-the-beaten-path trail located in the lower elevation west desert wilderness area, offering wide vistas, desert landscapes, and a reprieve from the more touristy trails in the park. Though it's a long trail, it's a mellow hike that can be cut off whenever you feel like turning around. It's a great hike with kids because it's not treacherous, slippery, or steep. Avoid it after snow or rain as it will be muddy.

The Chinle Trailhead starts outside of Zion, south of Springdale. If you are coming from St. George, the turn is about a block before you hit the apple orchard and stand as you leave Rockville off of State Route 9. There is a parking area off the right of Anasazi Way near the Anasazi Plateau housing development. If you hit houses, you missed it. And yes, the trail starts below the housing development and takes you right through it. Don't worry though, it doesn't last long.

Shortly after you get through the housing development, you will hit a sign letting you know you are entering the Zion Wilderness. At this point, you can breathe a sigh of relief, because you have gotten away from civilization to enjoy nature, and chances are that you won't see another soul until you return to your car.

Many Pools

By Candice Reed

The route is moderate with a gentle uphill climb to an alcove, but plan for a strenuous hike if you continue to the East Rim.

The route begins right off the highway. Drive to the pullout near the second drainage on the north side of the State Route 9, about 0.8 miles after the smaller tunnel. Walk carefully along the road about 150 yards and drop down into a sandy bowl on the north side of SR-9. There is a trail for a short distance, and then the sand turns into large flat stones that you can pick and choose to walk on, depending on your sense of balance. A short distance off the road, filled pools carved into the rocks appear. Ponderosa Pines and Juniper trees twisted by the wind are a good backdrop to the reds and whites ribboned through the rocks.

Overlook Trail

By Charlotte Emett

The Overlook Trail is a short, beautiful hike located on the east side of Zion National Park, just outside the Mt. Carmel tunnel. The hike is about one mile roundtrip, and it usually takes people about an hour. It is definitely one of the easier hikes in Zion, but it's still considered a moderate-level hike due to a few exposed areas and sandstone pathways, which can be slippery.

The Overlook trailhead lies right outside of the Mt. Carmel tunnel by the ranger booth. Exit the tunnel too quickly and you'll miss it.

It begins with a staircase carved out of the sandstone leading up and away from the road. Soon, you'll be walking along the side of the mountain and looking down into a thin crevice known as Pine Creek Canyon. At about halfway, you'll walk across a bridge that wraps around a corner and leads to an area of recessed rock wet with the moisture that caused it to erode and be filled with ferns growing out of the sandstone.

The East Rim Trail

By Bo Beck and Tanya Milligan

After positioning a vehicle or making shuttle arrangements at the Weeping Rock parking lot, watch for the small "trailhead" sign along the Zion-Mt. Carmel Highway, immediately west of the east entrance booth.

This trail is said to be one of the most scenic in all of Zion National Park and is on many lists as one of the best hikes in Utah. This trek begins on the east side of the park and climbs over 1,400 feet to the rim. This hike begins with a backdoor view of Checkerboard Mesa as it skirts Clear Creek for a short time and steadily and gently climbs through a juniper and pine forest. On top of the mesa, scenery gets interesting as a spectacular view of Echo Canyon takes center stage.

Popular Zion Hikes

Current Trail Closures

Road to Lava Point and West Rim Trailhead closed - This is a regular, seasonal closure, and we will change when snow melts. Lava Point Overlook is also closed. Closed trail bridge at Zion Lodge (Shuttle Stop #5) - To access Emerald Pools, start your hike at the Court of the Patriarchs (Shuttle Stop #4) or the Grotto (Shuttle Stop #6). Weeping Rock Shuttle Bus Stop, Due to rockfall, the area near Weeping Rock is temporarily closed. Toxic Cyanobacteria in the Virgin River and the streams of Zion National Park – Do not submerge your head in or filter drinking water from still or moving water.

Warning: These hikes are very popular and often overcrowded. If you are feeling up to some of the more difficult hikes, try some of these popular hikes.

Angels Landing via West Rim Trail

Possibly the most popular hike in Zion, Angels Landing takes around four hours to complete, covers just under 5 1/2 miles, and requires a permit to hike. As you work your way up the 1,488-foot change in elevation, you'll want to look out for long drop-offs. This hike is not for young children or people with a fear of heights. Be sure to enjoy, but be careful along the last section of the hike, which is a steep, narrow ridge to the summit. The hike starts at The Grotto.

The Narrows via Riverside Walk

A full-day hike at 8 hours, the Narrows can pose extra dangers depending on the weather. High water levels can prevent access to the Narrows, so be sure to check with the visitor center before beginning this 9 1/2-mile hike. You'll start this hike at Temple of Sinawava.

Kolob Arch via La Verkin Creek Trail

Getting to Kolob Arch via the La Verkin

Creek Trail follows Timber and La Verkin creeks and connects to the trail to Kolob Arch, one of the world's largest freestanding arches. A full-day hike, it will take around 8 hours to finish the 14-fourteen mile trip. This hike starts at Kolob Canyons Road.

If you are looking for something more moderate, try some of these mid-range hikes.

Kayenta Trail

This two-hour hike starts at the Grotto and goes for two miles. You'll gain 150 feet in elevation, and the trail does have long drop-offs. This unpaved climb connects the Grotto to the Emerald Pools trails.

Canyon Overlook Trail

Starting at Zion-Mt. Carmel Highway, this one-hour hike provides a 163-foot gain in elevation over the course of a mile. This rocky and uneven trail ends at a viewpoint for Pine Creek Canyon and lower Zion Canyon. While this trail is mostly fenced, there are long drop-offs.

Taylor Creek Trail

You'll begin this five-mile hike at Kolob Canyons Road. It should take around 4 hours to complete and provides a 450-foot gain in elevation. Larger groups may need to split up, as this hike limits 12 people to a group. It follows the Middle Fork of Taylor Creek past two homestead cabins to Double Arch Alcove.

Timber Creek Overlook Trail

A quick hike, the Timber Creek Overlook Trail covers just one mile and 100 feet in elevation gain. It can be done in about 30 minutes. The trail follows a ridge to a small peak with views of Timber Creek, Kolob Terrace, and Pine Valley Mountains.

Those looking for something less strenuous should check out these easy hikes.

Pa'rus Trail

Starting at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, this two-hour hike covers 3 1/2 miles and rises 50 feet in elevation. A paved trail that follows the Virgin River from the South Campground to Canyon Junction, Pa'rus Trail is wheelchair accessible and is open to both bicycles and dogs.

Archeology Trail

Also starting at the Zion Canyon Visitor Center, this short half-hour hike covers just under half a mile and rises 80 feet in elevation, making it a short but steep trail. This trail offers trailside exhibits and views of several prehistoric buildings.

Grotto Trail

Starting at Zion Lodge or the Grotto, this trail connects the two locations and can be combined with the Middle Emerald Pools and Kayenta trails to create a 2 1/2-mile loop. The non-loop version should take about 30 minutes and rises 35 feet over one mile.

Riverside Walk

Starting at Temple of Sinawava, this 1 1/2-hour hike cover just over two miles and rises 57 feet in elevation. While it is wheelchair accessable, there are minor drop-offs. The trail, which is paved, offers trailside exhibits as it follows the Virgin Rivet along the bottom of a narrow canyon.

Southern Utah State & National Parks

ANASAZI STATE PARK MUSEUM - This ancient Indian village in the heart of Utah's canyon country was one of the largest Anasazi communities west of the Colorado River. The site is believed to have been occupied from A.D. 1050 to 1200. The village remains largely unexcavated, but many artifacts have been uncovered and are on display in the newly remodeled museum. Anasazi State Park is in the picturesque town of Boulder on State Route 12. Group and individual picnic areas are available. There is no camping. (435) 335-7308.

BAKER - Baker Reservoir is a small lake on the Santa Clara River four miles north of Veyo on Utah State Route 18. It is a 63-acre lake with an average depth of about 20 feet. Many people come to the reservoir to camp at one of its 10 campsites and to fish. The reservoir is stocked with rainbow trout and contains brown trout, green sunfish, crayfish, reidside shiner, and mountain sucker. It has picnic areas and vault toilets. There is a fee for visiting the reservoir and no boat ramp.

BRYCE CANYON - Bryce Canyon National Park is a scientist's laboratory and a child's playground. Because Bryce transcends 2,000 feet of elevation, the park exists in three distinct climatic zones: spruce/fir forest, ponderosa pine forest and pinion pine/juniper forest. This diversity of habitat provides for high biodiversity. Here at Bryce, you can enjoy over 100 species of birds, dozens of mammals, and more than a thousand plant species. (435) 834-5322.

CEDAR BREAKS - Sitting at over 10,000 feet and looking down into a half-mile deep geologic amphitheater. Come wander among timeless bristlecone pines, stand in lush meadows of wildflowers, ponder crystal-clear night skies and experience the richness of our subalpine forest. Just four miles off Utah Highway 148, you'll find the Cedar Breaks National Monument parking lot.

CORAL PINK SAND DUNES - At an elevation of 6,000 feet and 12 paved miles off U.S. Highway 89 near Kanab, this park provides a fantastic setting for camping, hiking, OHV riding or just playing in the sand. A 265-acre conservation area prohibits motorized vehicles in order to protect the Coral Pink beetle (found nowhere else in the world) and its habitat. The mule deer, jackrabbit, kit fox, coyote, and many small rodents also make the park their home. (435) 648-2800.

DEAD HORSE POINT - Dead Horse Point State Park is perhaps Utah's most spectacular state park. Dead Horse Point is a promontory of stone surrounded by steep cliffs near Moab. The overlook at Dead Horse Point is 6,000 feet above sea level. Two-thousand feet below, the Colorado River winds its way from the continental divide in Colorado to the Gulf of California, a distance of 1,400 miles. (435) 259-2614.

DINOSAUR TRACKS - The St. George Dinosaur Discovery Site at Johnson Farm is home to exceptionally well-preserved dinosaur tracks, some displaying skin impressions. These tracks, along with hundreds of fossil fish, plants, rare dinosaur remains, invertebrates' traces, and important sedimentary structures, show evidence that this site was produced along the western edge of a large, Early Jurassic (age between 195-198 million years ago) freshwater lake. (435) 574-3466.

ENTERPRISE - There are two reservoirs in the Bull Valley Mountains 10 miles southwest of the town of Enterprise. The main one is Upper Enterprise Reservoir, about 250 acres with an average depth of about 50 feet, while Lower Enterprise Reservoir is 79 acres. Many come to the reservoir to camp, fish hike, and boat. The Honeycomb Campground is situated between both lakes and has 21 campsites and flush toilets. There is a boat ramp on Upper Enterprise Reservoir and several fishing areas around both reservoirs. Fishermen will find rainbow trout and smallmouth bass here. Fees are charged.

FOUR CORNERS - The Four Corners is the only place in the U.S. where four states come together at one place: Arizona, New Mexico, Utah and Colorado. Here, a person can put each of their hands and feet in four states at the same time. The unique landmark is on Navajo Nation land and is open for visits from the public. West of U.S. Highway 160, 40 miles southwest of Cortez, Colo. (928) 871-6436.

GRAND CANYON - A World Heritage Site encompassing 1,218,375 acres on the Colorado Plateau in northwestern Arizona. The land is semi-arid and consists of raised plateaus and structural basins typical of the southwestern United States. (928) 638-7888.

GRAND STAIRCASE-ESCALANTE NATIONAL MONUMENT - Nearly 1.9 million acres of America's public lands and located between Bryce Canyon and Glen Canyon Recreational Areas. From its namesake Grand Staircase of cliffs and terraces across the rugged Kaiparowits Plateau to the beauty of the Escalante River Canyons, the Monument's size, resources, and isolated location provide amazing opportunities.

GUNLOCK - In scenic red rock country, 15 miles northwest of St. George, lies the 240-acre Gunlock State Park and Reservoir where year-round boating, water sports, and quality fishing for bass and catfish attract visitors. Facilities include boat launching ramp and pit privies. (435) 628-2255.

LAKE MEAD - Lake Mead National Recreation Area offers a wealth of things to do and places to go year-round. Its huge lakes cater to boaters, swimmers, sunbathers and fishermen, while its desert rewards hikers, wildlife photographers, and roadside sightseers. It is also home to thousands of desert plants and animals adapted to survive in an extreme place where rain is scarce and temperatures soar. (702) 293-8990.

LAKE POWELL - In Glen Canyon National Recreation Area is one of the world's great places for houseboating! The 186-mile-long lake offers sandy beaches, cool blue water, and exceptional red-rock scenery. It is excellent for boating, skiing, kayaking, and fishing. Boat or hike to Rainbow Bridge, or explore any of its many canyons or sand dunes. (928) 608-6200.

PINE VALLEY - Pine Valley Reservoir is a beautiful place for fishermen to fish brook trout and rainbow trout. The reservoir is near the Pine Valley Recreation Complex, which has over 150 campsites with picnic and restroom facilities. This area is greener than most other parts of southwestern Utah with pine and pinion trees, and many come to enjoy camping and hiking. It is west of the town of Central. (435) 652-3100.

QUAIL LAKE - Quail Creek State Park provides excellent year-round camping, picnicking, boating, and trout and bass fishing in sunny southwest Utah. The park is three miles east of the Interstate 15 Hurricane exit on Utah State Route 9. Facilities include 23 campsites, modern restrooms, a fish cleaning station, and two covered group-use pavilions. (435) 879-2378.

SAND HOLLOW - Looking to fish? Swim? Ride your ATV in the sand? Do all that and more at Sand Hollow State Park, located between St. George and Hurricane. Bring your boat, a picnic, and some fishing gear for a fun day on the reservoir, or watch the kids swim while you relax on the beach. Load up your RV or tent and settle in for a nice campout, or ride your ATV in the dunes of Sand Mountain. (435) 680-0715.

SNOW CANYON - Named after early Utah leaders Lorenzo and Erastus Snow, Snow Canyon State Park begins just outside of Ivins and stretches northward. Spectacular scenery includes towering red and white sandstone cliffs, black lava formations, and even a waterfall that appears during heavy rain. Snow Canyon offers 16 miles of hiking trails, beautiful sand dunes, technical rock climbing sites, horseback riding, year-round camping, nature studies, and wildlife viewing. This park is a favorite for locals and visitors alike. (435) 628-2255.

ZION - With breathtaking views, numerous hiking attractions of all difficulty levels and some of the most spectacular scenery on earth, Zion National Park and its surrounding areas attract thousands of visitors every year. This natural wonder is not only a mecca of recreational activity, but Zion and nearby Springdale host numerous cultural activities, as well. There's something for everyone in Zion - whether you're looking for a challenging hike or a fun excursion for the family. (435) 772-3256.
